Craig Bohl Brings Winning Ways to Wyoming

Craig Bohl Has Been Part of Building Successful Programs Throughout His Career

Craig Bohl was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as head coach of the Bison for 11 seasons from 2003-13.

Bohl's teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. His NDSU program became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

He was named the National Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). Bohl also became the first coach in the 27-year history of the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year award to receive the honor in back-to-back seasons.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman. "I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at his record, including several wins over FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) programs."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team, and I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and around the state of Wyoming," said Bohl. "This is the state team, and I embrace that. I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming."

"We understand the bar is high. I appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me the vision of where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be given to allow us to experience success."

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

- Won Three FCS National Championships at North Dakota State in 2011, '12 and '13
- NDSU became only the second team to win three consecutive FCS titles in NCAA history and was the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since 1996
- Named the Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13, becoming the first coach to win the honor in consecutive seasons in the 27-year history of the award
- FCS National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 as selected by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA)
- Assistant Coach on two FBS National Championships at Nebraska in 1995 and '97

WESTON JOHNSON ALWAYS A COWBOY

WE DEDICATE THIS YEAR'S WYOMING FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE TO WESTON JOHNSON

Weston Johnson loved being a Wyoming Cowboy. From the time he signed his national letter of intent to play football at the University of Wyoming in the winter of 2005 to his passing on January 17, 2014, at the age of 27, Weston was passionate about Cowboy Football.

He was a beloved teammate and friend. Weston had an ever-present smile. He always had time for and cared for his teammates, and was selected a team captain his senior season of 2009. Weston helped lead the Cowboys to the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. In that game, his defense made one of the most memorable goal-line stands in school history. The UW defense held Fresno State out of the end zone on four consecutive plays from the Cowboys' own one-yard line in overtime. That helped Wyoming go on to capture a 35-28, double-overtime victory.

Following his graduation in December of 2009, Weston signed a free-agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons of the NFL and went to camp with the Falcons in 2010. But he couldn't stay away from Cowboy Football for long, as he joined the Wyoming coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant coach in January of 2011. The same qualities that made him such a great teammate made him a great mentor for the new group of Cowboys. Following his time as a graduate assistant at UW, he chose to continue his coaching career at Sheridan High School in Sheridan, Wyo.

Weston epitomized the qualities of a college student-athlete. In the spring of 2009, he was recognized by the UW College of Business as its top Senior Marketing Student. In the fall of 2009, he was named a Second Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District selection, achieving a 3.44 cumulative grade-point average in marketing. Weston was honored as an Academic All-Mountain West Conference selection four consecutive years.

We dedicate this year's media guide to the memory of Weston and to his wonderful human spirit.

The Cowboy Sports Network

Dave Walsh

Kevin McKinney

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games can be heard live on the 26 affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

Dave Walsh will be serving as the "Voice of the Cowboys" for his 31st season in 2014. He will be joined by longtime Cowboy color analyst Kevin McKinney, who will be adding color commentary on Wyoming Football games for the 17th consecutive season.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Walsh received his degree in radio and television in 1975 from San Diego State. He was the sports director at KVOC Radio in Casper, Wyo., prior to joining the Cowboys. He is a nine-time Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year as selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

McKinney, a Cheyenne native and University of Wyoming graduate, has also been honored during his distinguished career as a Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year. McKinney serves as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at UW.

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the 2014 season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the S lot on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The S lot can be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the S parking lot.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birleffi Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, ISDN lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 1-800-WYO-FAN1 or 307-766-4850, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Postgame Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the respective team interview areas with two minutes remaining in the game. Requested Cowboy players and Head Coach Craig Bohl will be escorted to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) Weight Room following the 10-minute cooling off period. Opponent players and head coach will meet with media members in War Memorial Fieldhouse following the cooling off period.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice session.

Craig Bohl Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the Rochelle Athletics Center. Bohl will also be available via teleconference during the press conference. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Interviews

Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media for individual interviews each Monday following Coach Bohl's press conference.

Media need to submit specific player and assistant coach interview requests to Tim Harkins of the UW Media Relations Office by phone or e-mail no later than 1 p.m. on Sundays for the Monday interviews.

It is requested that media conduct their interviews on Mondays. If there are student-athletes and assistant coaches unable to meet an interview request on Monday due to a scheduling conflict, those student-athletes and coaches will be made available Tuesday.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Media Teleconferences

A teleconference will be included as a part of Craig Bohl's Monday press conferences during the season, giving those media, unable to attend, an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the Cowboy head coach.

For detailed information on teleconferences and how to connect to the calls, contact the UW Media Relations Office at (307) 766-2256

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.

Wyoming Wins the Bronze Boot in 2009, '10, '11 and '12

Senior Chris McNeill lifts the Bronze Boot overhead as he and his teammates celebrate their 45-31 home victory over Colorado State in 2012. The Cowboys have won the "Border War" four of the last five seasons (2009, '10, '11 and '12). That is the first time UW had defeated archival Colorado State in four consecutive seasons since 1970, '71, '72 and '73.

Blair Burns takes off on a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown in Wyoming's 45-31 home win over CSU in 2012. That tied Burns for the second longest interception return in school history.

David Leonard's 53-yard punt return in the second quarter set up Wyoming's first touchdown, and gave the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime lead in 2009.

Alvester Alexander set a new UW single-game record with five rushing touchdowns in Wyoming's 44-0 shutout win in 2010.

Brett Smith threw touchdown passes of 80 and 35 yards, and accounted for 281 yards of total offense in Wyoming's 22-19 "Border War" road win in Smith's true freshman season of 2011.

Brian Hendricks, playing in his final regular-season game for the Cowboys, led Wyoming with nine tackles, including a critical touchdown-saving tackle that would lead to a 22-19 Cowboy victory in 2011. Hendricks earned Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week honors for his effort.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Prior to the Wyoming Cowboys' 2012 and 2013 Spring Games, the entire team hosted the "Wyoming in Haiti Football Fun Day" in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. The Football Fun Day served as a fundraiser to help defray travel costs for the "Wyoming In Haiti" trip that took place May 2012 and May 2013.

In May of 2012, '13 and '14, several University of Wyoming Football players, along with student-athletes from several other UW sports teams traveled to Haiti to honor the memory of their fallen teammate Ruben Narcisse.

The 2010 college football season started on a sad note for the Wyoming Cowboys when the Monday following their season opener linebacker Narcisse was killed in an early morning car accident on Labor Day, Sept. 6, 2010. Narcisse was a 19-year old freshman from Miami, Fla.

Ruben Narcisse Takes the Field as a Cowboy in 2010

While Narcisse played his high school football at Chaminade-Madonna Prep in Miami, his family is originally from Haiti. His father Lyonel continues to return to his native country to help in the rebuilding efforts following the tragic 2010 earthquake in Haiti that left 200,000 people dead and 1.6 million homeless.

It was decided in the winter of 2012, that the Cowboy football team wanted to go to Haiti to aid in the ongoing relief efforts. The Wyoming Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organized the "Wyoming in Haiti" trip, and on May 7-13 a group of 25 University of Wyoming football, volleyball and soccer student-athletes and coaches traveled to Haiti. The Cowboys and Cowgirls conducted sports camps, and assisted the local church of Lyonel Narcisse in rebuilding efforts.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

On May 30, 2014, approximately 60 University of Wyoming football student-athletes accompanied by several other university employees and students traveled over the Snowy Range to help the community of Saratoga, Wyo., fight off flooding from the North Platte River.

Spring runoff from melting snow and rainstorms had swelled the North Platte River that runs through downtown Saratoga. Wyoming National Guard units had already been in town for several days working to assist the community in its battle against the river.

One of the Cowboy volunteers who traveled to Saratoga to help was senior free safety Darren White.

"The reason we came is to help out the people in this community," White said. "We want to support them. I'm really enjoying it, and I'm glad to help out any way we can."

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

FOOTBALL

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 10 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008);
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007);
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005) and
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004).

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 17 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010) and Nebraska (2011).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Michigan State (2014); Oregon (2014, 2017); Washington State (2015, 2018); Nebraska (2016); Iowa (2017); Missouri (2018, 2019); Texas Tech (2020, 2022); and Clemson (2021). Oregon, Washington State, Missouri and Texas Tech are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country — and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28. The Cowboys and Temple Owls once again began the college bowl season in 2011 on ESPN in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes partnerships with CBS Sports Network, ESPN and ROOT SPORTS.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, in 2010, CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION GAMEDAY

ATMOSPHERE

Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

The 2014 season will see the rich tradition of Wyoming Football mark its 118th season of college football.

GAMEDAY

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

And of course prior to the game plenty of tailgating activities can be found centered around Wyoming's Tailgate Park.

Julius Stinson was named one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe Award, which is presented annually to the top college defensive back in the country.

WYOMING BOWL HISTORY

1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboys appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.

1987 Holiday Bowl

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

Bowden Wyatt

Wyoming Head Coach of 1951 Gator Bowl Champions

Bowden Wyatt guided the Wyoming Cowboys to its first-ever bowl appearance in the 1950 season, when on Jan. 1, 1951, Wyoming defeated Washington & Lee, 20-7, to complete an undefeated, 10-0, season.

1968 Sugar Bowl 1976 Fiesta Bowl 1988 Holiday Bowl

1990 Copper Bowl 2004 Las Vegas Bowl 2009 New Mexico Bowl

2004 Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl Champions

Wyoming seniors Guy Tuell, Trenton Franz, J.J. Raterink and Zach Morris helped lead the Cowboys to the biggest upset of the 2004 bowl season as Wyoming defeated UCLA, 24-21, in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl.

WYOMING BOWL HISTORY

2009 New Mexico Bowl Champions

Wyoming senior defensive end Mitch Unrein accepts the Defensive Most Valuable Player Award for his performance in Wyoming's 35-28, double-overtime win over Fresno State in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl.

Jim Kiick

MVP of the 1966 Sun Bowl

Wyoming running back Jim Kiick scored two touchdowns, including one on a 43-yard run in leading Wyoming to a 28-20 victory over Florida State in the 1966 Sun Bowl to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

Tom Corontzos

Quarterback of 1990 Copper Bowl Team

Tom Corontzos threw for 226 yards against the California Bears in the 1990 Copper Bowl. The game came down to the last 49 seconds, but Wyoming lost a 15-17 heartbreaker.

William H. "Lone Star" Dietz

Head Coach at Wyoming from 1924-26, became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame. He was inducted in ceremonies held in July 2012.

The University of Wyoming is proud to have six former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney, Pat Dye, Bowden Wyatt and William H. "Lone Star" Dietz, and former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom and Jay Novacek have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

Dietz became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame as he was inducted during ceremonies in July of 2012 as a part of the Hall's 2012 Divisional Class. Dietz coached the Cowboys for three seasons from 1924-26. During his career which spanned from 1915-42, he also served as the head coach at Washington State, Purdue, Louisiana Tech, Haskell Indian Institute and Albright (Pa.), building a career record of 96-62-7 (.603).

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

Two scholar-athletes from each of the five Wyoming high school classifications and the University of Wyoming are honored each year at the Wyoming Chapter's annual banquet. In the Wyoming Chapter's history, it has received 46 nominations for UW football student-athletes and 1,207 nominations for High School football players for its annual scholarship awards program. A total of $220,950 in scholarships has been awarded to High School and UW Scholar-Athletes. The high school recipients have represented 58 of Wyoming's 63 high schools that play football.

The Wyoming Chapter has had three West Regional Winners and three Regional Runners-up, competing against 25 other chapters in the West. That speaks volumes for the outstanding young men in Wyoming.

Former Cowboy Football player Justin Hopkin from Burlington, Wyo., won the West Region High School Award in 1996. Another former Cowboy, Chris Prosinski of Buffalo, Wyo., was the NFF West Regional High School winner in 2006. Gavin Mills from Powell, Wyo., won the NFF West Regional High School Award in 2009.

Former Cowboy, John Wendling, was one of only 17 national finalists for the 2006 Draddy Trophy. The Draddy Trophy, which was renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often called the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded annually to the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation. By being named one of the Draddy finalists in '06, Wendling received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the NFF.

Wendling was also the first individual to be both a Wyoming NFF Chapter High School scholarship winner, as well as a Wyoming Chapter College scholarship winner. Jake Edmunds a UW graduate in 2009 and Chris Prosinski in 2010 were the second and third individuals to be honored as both a Wyoming high school and University of Wyoming Scholar-Athlete Finalist.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 121 chapters. If you would like to become a member or help support the Wyoming Chapter as it strives to be No. 1 please contact former Cowboy Football letterman and current Wyoming NFF Chapter Membership Chairman, Mike Schutte at 3608 Green Spring Drive, Fort Collins, CO 80528 or email him at MShootee@gmail.com.

COACHING GREATS

Some of the greatest names in college football have held the position of head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys. Bowden Wyatt, Phil Dickens, Bob Devaney, Lloyd Eaton, Fred Akers, Paul Roach and Joe Tiller have all led the Cowboy Football program to exciting victories, conference championships and bowl games as head coach of the Cowboys.

Four former Wyoming head coaches have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three are; Wyatt, who was inducted in 1997; Devaney, inducted in 1981; Pat Dye, who went on to great success at Auburn and was inducted in 2005; and Lone Star Dietz in 2012.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION ACADEMIC

ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton where he earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and his Ph.D. in January 2011. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

Luke Ruff

Wyoming's Most Recent First Team Academic All-American, 2012

Luke Ruff, a civil engineering major with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average was named First Team Capital One Academic All-American in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, and is pursuing a master's degree in environmental engineering with a focus on nano-particle research.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

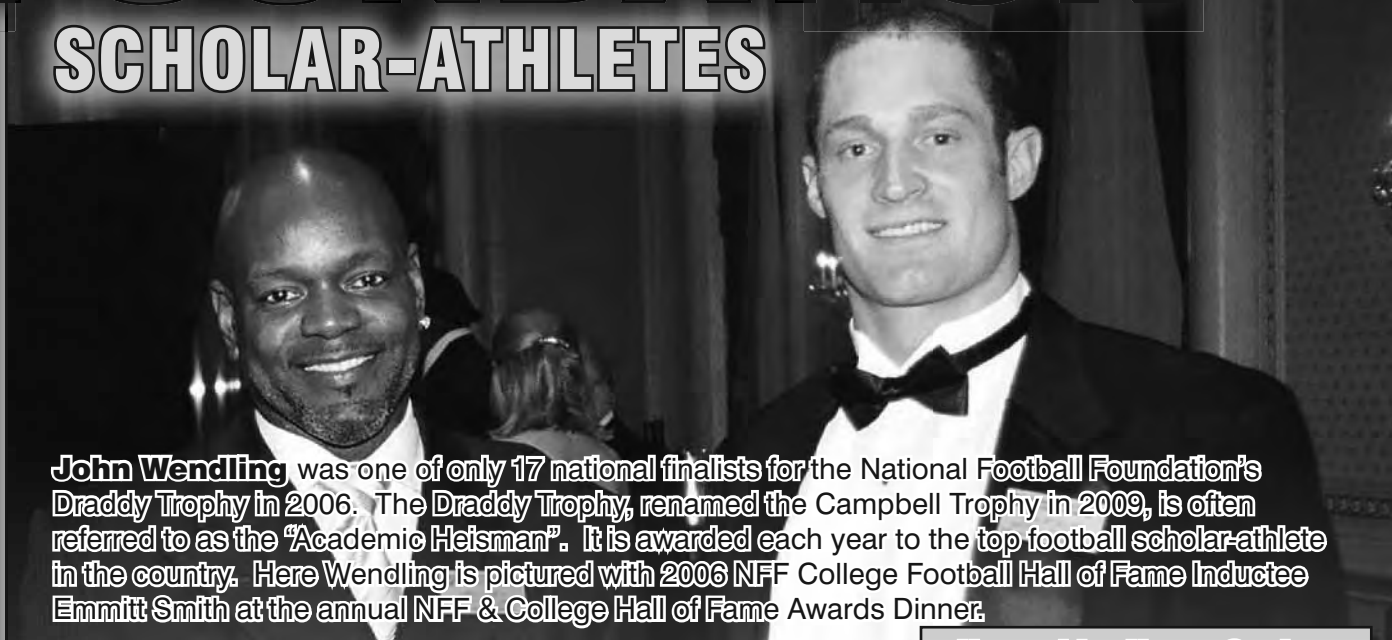

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopoulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to manage his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently a Senior Associate Athletics Director at UW.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, retail manager for Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MWC free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

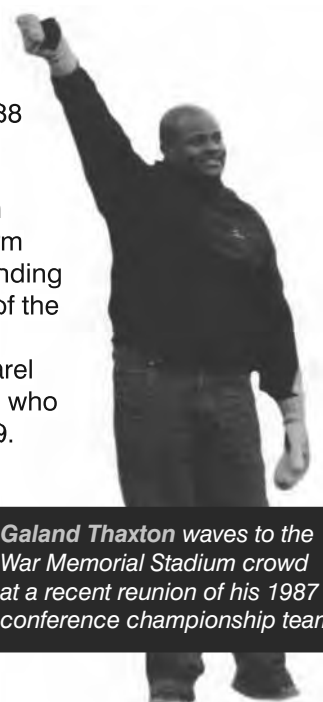

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

For the 2013 college football season, a brand new FieldTurf Revolution playing surface with a distinctive Wyoming design was unveiled on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. The new surface was installed in June 2013, and was selected by Wyoming Athletics due to its elite-level playability. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs Mick and Susie McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artificial turf was completed in August of 2005.

The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The new elements of the 2013 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic Teton Mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a new western-style font. Also new is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate.

The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Manager for FieldTurf, Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

THE “BORDER WAR” AND THE “BRONZE BOOT”

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State “Border War” football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the “Border War” every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2014 season will mark the 69th consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. In fact, this is one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi River. This year will mark the 106th meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the “Bronze Boot”, traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnam by a CSU graduate. The boot has rested in UW’s possession in 24 of the 46 years since its inception.

The “Bronze Boot” has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year’s 2014 meeting will be the 47th time the trophy has been fought over.

The Bronze Boot Series

Wyoming 24 Wins, CSU 22 Wins

The statue "Fanning a Twister", depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created "Fanning a Twister".

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER — SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture "Cowboy Tough" was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch "Cowboy Tough" as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse "Steamboat" at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state's automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse "Deadman" with a rider by the name of "Stub" Farlow atop it. "Deadman" was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of "Deadman" and Farlow for the design of the state's license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW's athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is "Steamboat" or "Deadman", the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

Stadium Dedication

Sept. 23, 1950, Versus Baylor

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.

THE VETERANS' MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a recent game.

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict.

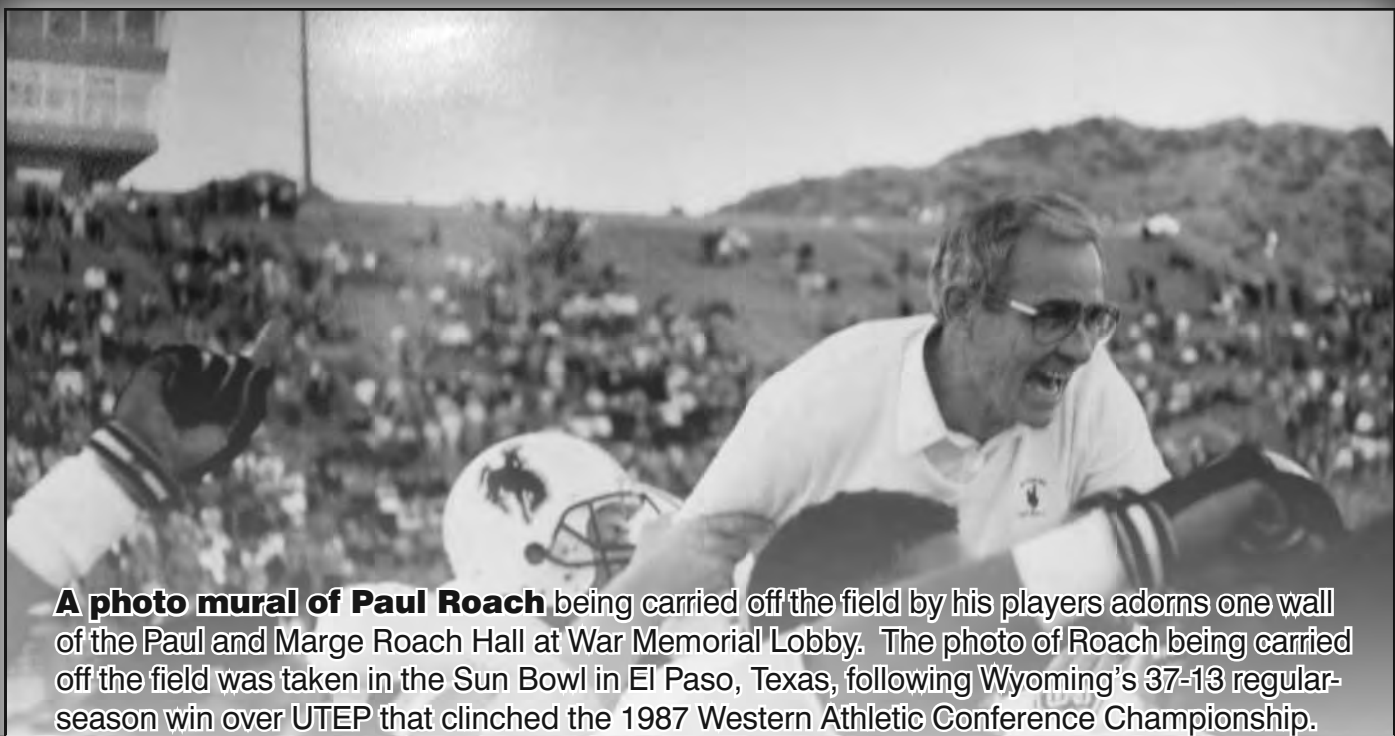

Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium".

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

The Plaza is separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you look north, the section on the right displays flags of every military branch; Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also features a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displays the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there, as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans' celebration).

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM'S WILDCATTER STADIUM CLUB AND SUITES

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium, “The War”, is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

ROCHELLE

ATHLETICS CENTER

The Rochelle Athletics Center as Seen From War Memorial Stadium

The proximity of the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) and Indoor Practice Facility to War Memorial Stadium make the UW Football Complex one of the finest in the country. The RAC and Indoor Practice Facility are pictured here in a photo taken from the west upper deck of War Memorial Stadium.

The University of Wyoming has experienced remarkable success nationally through the years on the field and in the classroom. The Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) ensures a continuation of that success, as well as enhancing the Cowboys' reputation across the country. The Rochelle Athletics Center has allowed UW to continue its tradition of providing quality academic programs side-by-side with a quality football program.

Thanks to a $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, the largest in school history at the time, the facility began construction in May of 2000. It was completed in August of 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. The project was funded totally by private donations.

Located just north of War Memorial Stadium, the RAC occupies 46,140 square feet. It includes a state-of-the-art sports medicine and treatment center, a strength and conditioning center, an academic and counseling area and large meeting rooms.

The expanded academic support area provides a full range of services for student-athletes. Included are networked computer stations, a student counseling area and study tables.

A broader scope and greater availability of sports medicine services includes space for treatment, practice preparation, examination/diagnosis and hydrotherapy. The strength and conditioning center allows improved weight and agility training for the Cowboys.

"We wanted our gift to help create a lasting athletic legacy for the University and for the State of Wyoming," Rochelle said after presenting the gift. "The University of Wyoming has had a major influence in our lives. We are proud to be a part of the tradition of academic and athletic excellence at the University of Wyoming."

Born in Lusk, Wyo., Rochelle received a B.S. degree in animal science from UW in 1941. While a student, he was president of his senior class.

Rochelle served as a UW Trustee from 1983 through 1989, and received a UW Trustee Award of Merit. In 1994, he was awarded the UW Medallion Service Award recognizing his outstanding service and dedication to the University. Marian, a native of Denver, is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

Curtis Rochelle passed away in the spring of 2005.

The Wyoming Football locker room is housed in the Rochelle Athletics Center, and contains 120 lockers for members of the Cowboy Football team.

Zach Duval, Director of Sports Performance

Zach Duval joined the Wyoming Athletics Department as Director of Sport Performance and Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2014. He has 14 years of previous college experience at Nebraska, Creighton and Buffalo.

Wyoming's strength and conditioning program is led by Director of Sports Performance Zach Duval. Zach Duval became Wyoming's new Director of Sports Performance and Head Football Strength Coach in 2014 after serving in the same role at the University of Buffalo for four seasons from 2010-13.

While at Buffalo, Duval coached All-America linebacker Khalil Mack. Mack, who earned First Team All-America honors his senior season, was taken as the fifth overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Duval brings a wealth of experience in strength and conditioning both at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level and in private business.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in the University of Nebraska "Husker Power" strength training program from 1995-96. Duval was elevated to the position of football strength coach at Nebraska from 1997-2002. During his years with the Huskers, NU won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

In 2002, Duval entered private business, founding the Xplosive Edge performance center. His company developed specialized computer software to be utilized by strength-training professionals. During his time in private business, he co-owned and managed The Performance and Wellness Institute in Greeley, Colo. He returned to Nebraska for the 2008 season.

Prior to taking over as Director of Sports Performance at Buffalo, Duval was the Director of Athletic Performance at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. He also had oversight over nutrition for the Bluejays' athletics teams in 2009.

He and his staff not only coordinate workouts for UW student-athletes, but they also consult with Wyoming student-athletes on how to maximize their health and performance by effectively managing their diet and nutrition.

Wyoming's spacious Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center within the Rochelle Athletics Center allows UW student-athletes to receive the best in treatment from Wyoming's outstanding athletic training staff.

During the 2012-13 season, the Bruce Pivik Family made a generous donation to enhance the RAC athletic training center including a complete renovation of Wyoming's hydro-therapy area. The hydrotherapy area contained within the sports medicine center assists student-athletes in prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

The Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center, located in Wyoming's Rochelle Athletics Center, contains 4,829 square feet.

The University of Wyoming athletic-training staff utilize the most current preventive and rehabilitative techniques in treating UW student-athletes.

A staff of five full-time, certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistants and student athletic trainers work to meet the needs of Wyoming's student-athletes.

The physicians of Premier Bone & Joint Centers are the team orthopedic doctors for UW Athletics. Premier Bone & Joint Centers offer nine surgeons who are on call for Wyoming sports injury management. Should injuries occur, the staff at Premier also is able to provide expertise in treatment and rehabilitation through their main clinic located in Laramie, Wyo.

In addition to the nine physicians, the main clinic in Laramie contains over 33,000 square feet and employs a staff of over 120 administrative and clinical personnel.

The clinic was founded in 1973 by Dr. David A. Kieffer. In 1976, Dr. Robert J. Curnow joined Kieffer in the practice, which they renamed "Gem City Bone & Joint." Kieffer and Curnow served as the team physicians for University of Wyoming athletics teams for many years. Following Kieffer's and Curnow's retirements as senior team physicians, Dr. Jay Carson and Dr. Ryan Aukerman assumed those duties in August 2008. Carson stepped down as a team physician in 2011. Aukerman now serves as the Head Team Physician. He is joined by Dr. Mark McKenna and Dr. Mark Ryzewicz in treating University of Wyoming student-athletes.

Premier Bone & Joint Centers serves patients throughout the state of Wyoming, western Nebraska, western South Dakota and northeastern Colorado through 11 locations in: Laramie, Casper, Cheyenne, Douglas, Gillette, Green River, Rawlins, Riverton, Rock Springs, Torrington and Wheatland.

Premier's staff of orthopedic physicians specialize in treatment of virtually every area of the body, including: elbow; foot and ankle; hand; wrist; knee; shoulder; neck; and spine.

As a demonstration of its support of UW Athletics, Premier Bone & Joint Centers made a major commitment of support to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) at the University of Wyoming for a medical treatment facility. In recognition of that support, the medical area of the RAC is named the "Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center." The financial arrangement with Premier benefitted UW Athletics in the amount of $750,000.

The Classroom Building

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

Our comfortable size and hands-on approach give students ample access to their professors who have as their primary responsibility the education of undergraduate students. Unlike faculty at most other major research universities, our faculty teach more than 90 percent of all credit hours. In fact, many of our most accomplished professors teach first-year courses — beginning the mentoring process with students from the first day of class. Our students have a chance to work with world-class faculty on cutting-edge projects that benefit people across Wyoming and around the world — projects like creating super-strong artificial spider silk or studying stressors that contribute to cardiovascular disease.

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 13,992. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union. Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

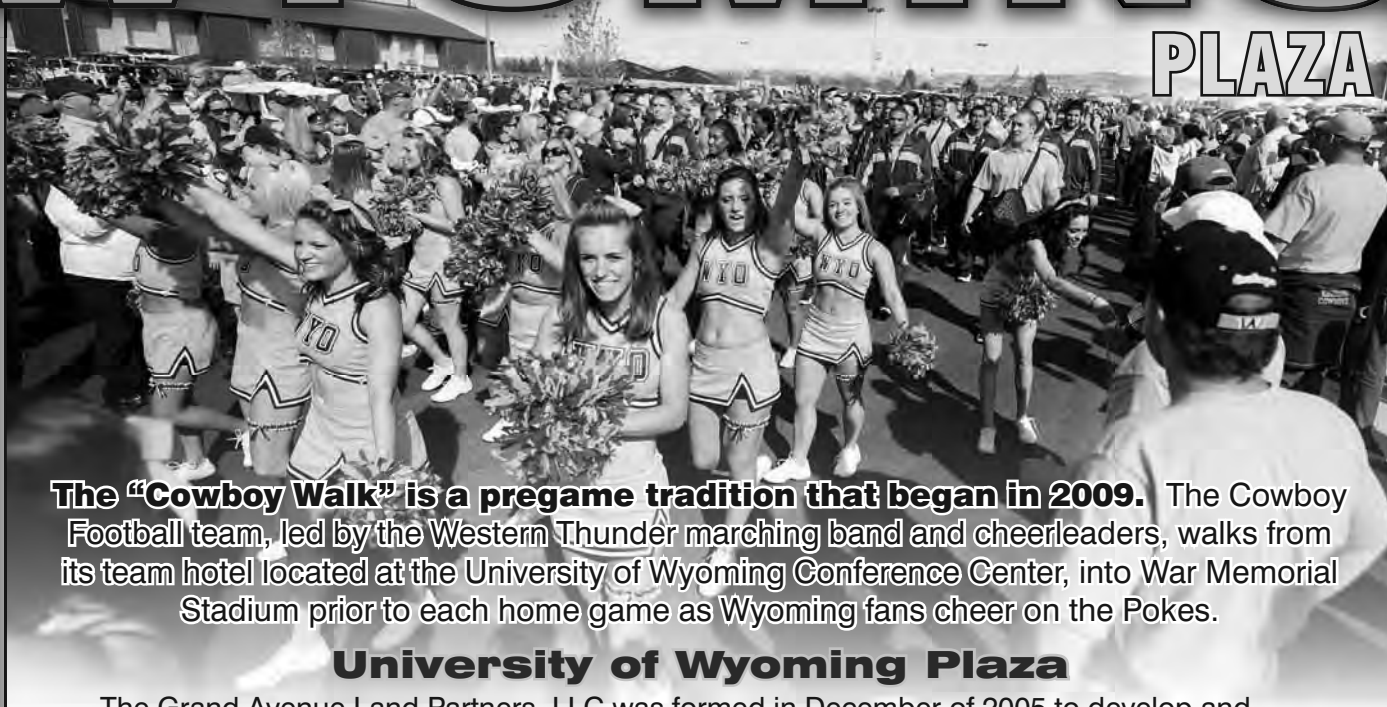

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

National Publications Rank Wyoming as One of the Nation's Best

- As of August 2011, Forbes ranked the University of Wyoming No. 10 on its list of "America's Best College Buys".
- The Princeton Review's 2009 edition of "The Best 371 Colleges" ranked Wyoming as "One of the Nation's Best Institutions for Undergraduate Education" and as a "Best Western College".
- Barron's Best Buys in College Education ranked UW among the top four-year United States institutions in its fifth edition.

The "Cowboy Walk" is a pregame tradition that began in 2009. The Cowboy Football team, led by the Western Thunder marching band and cheerleaders, walks from its team hotel located at the University of Wyoming Conference Center, into War Memorial Stadium prior to each home game as Wyoming fans cheer on the Pokes.

University of Wyoming Plaza

The Grand Avenue Land Partners, LLC was formed in December of 2005 to develop and operate the University of Wyoming Plaza Commercial Shops. The Plaza has had numerous shops open since 2008, with additional shops expected to be added in the future.

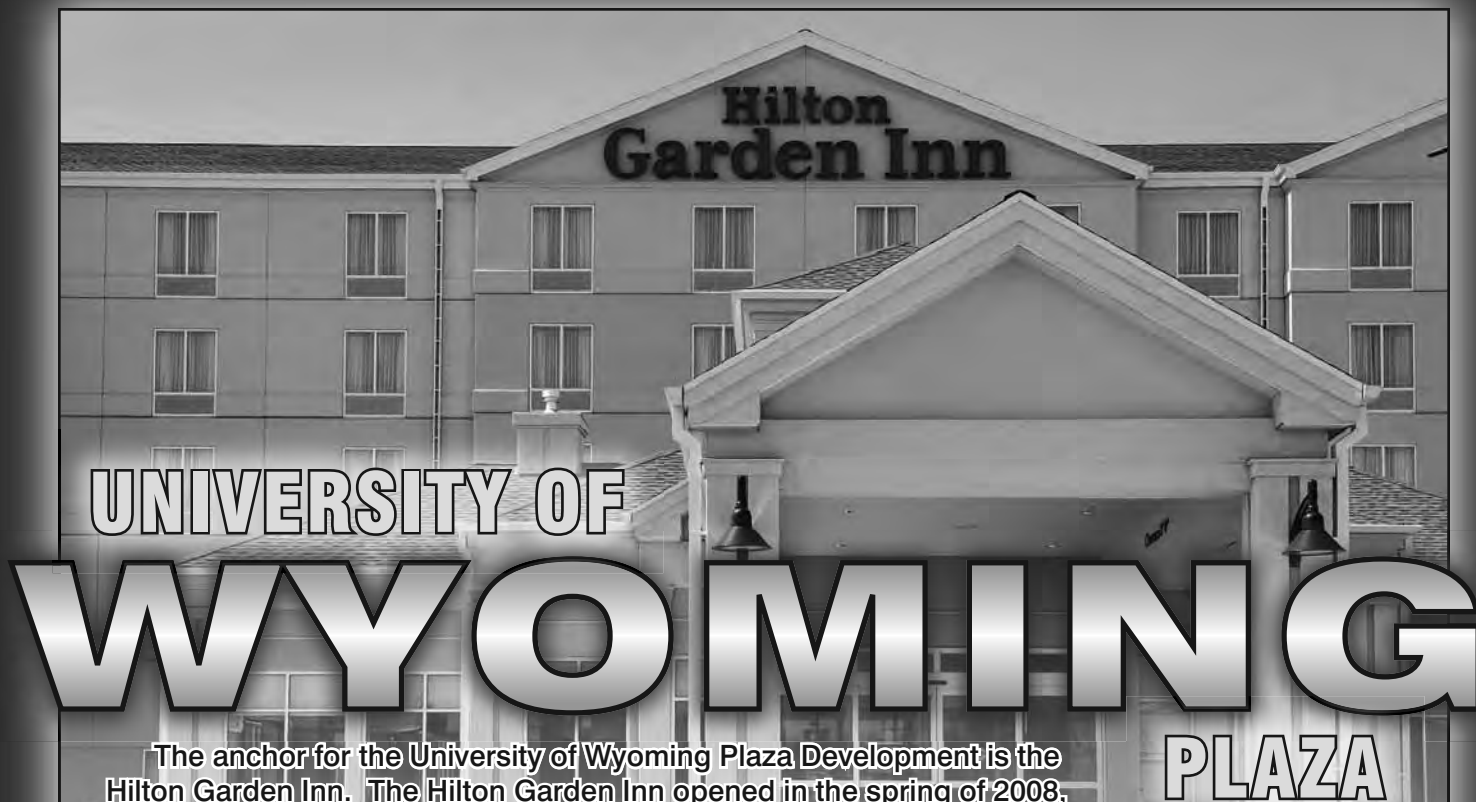

Currently the UW Plaza includes such businesses as Chili's, Coal Creek Coffee, Great Clips, Jimmy John's Gourmet Sandwiches, McAlister's Deli and Union Wireless. There is a total of 58,000 square feet available for retail shops and restaurants and another 30,000 square feet of Class A office space available for sale or lease.

University of Wyoming Apartments

Located north and east of the UW Plaza are the University Apartments at the University of Wyoming that provide housing for families, married couples and single parents.

The anchor for the University of Wyoming Plaza Development is the Hilton Garden Inn. The Hilton Garden Inn opened in the spring of 2008, and includes 135 guest rooms and the 22,000 square foot University of Wyoming Conference and Education Center.

Beginning in the fall of 2009, the Wyoming Cowboy Football team began spending Friday nights before home games at the Hilton.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION POKE PREGAME ZONE

"Fan Fest" and "Tailgate Alley" to be New Features for All Cowboy Home Games

Wyoming football fans will be offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the "Poke Pregame Zone" will kick off a new era of Cowboy Football. The "Poke Pregame Zone" will shift the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and will incorporate a new "Tailgate Alley" adjacent to Indoor Practice Facility.

"Fan Fest" will be held for all six home games in 2014. It is open to all fans, and will kick off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids' games and activities, live music and televised national football games will all be featured for fans' enjoyment.

"Tailgate Alley", adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, will be a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in "Tailgate Alley" are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now.

The "Poke Pregame Zone" will provide a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans — many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

LARAMIE

...BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

WYOMING COWBOYS BEGIN CRAIG BOHL ERA

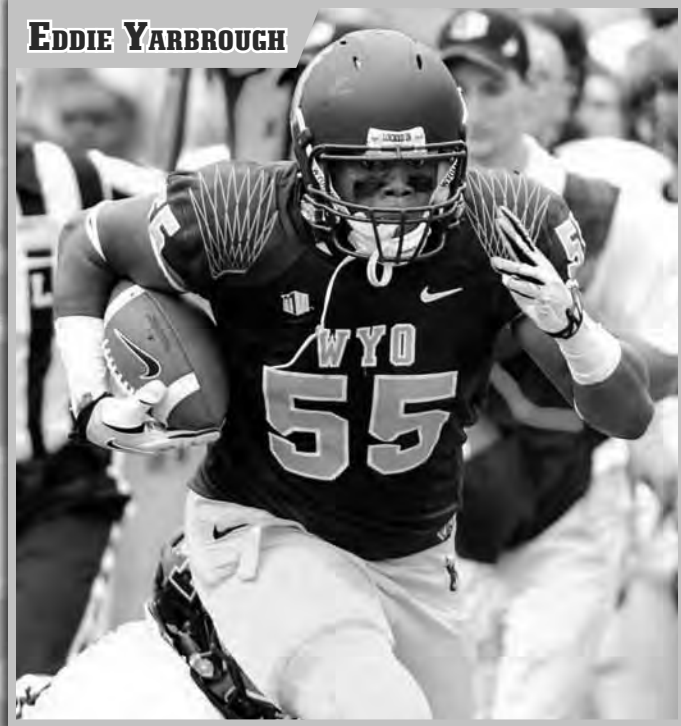

Pokes Return 17 Starters and 44 Letterwinners for 2014 Season

The Craig Bohl era begins at Wyoming in 2014. The man who led North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS National Championships (2011, '12 and '13) as head coach and was part of two FBS national titles (1995, '97) as an assistant coach at Nebraska takes over as the 32nd head coach in Wyoming Football history.

Bohl and his staff focused their first spring practice session at Wyoming on bringing their brand of tough, hard-nosed football to the Cowboy Football program. At the conclusion of the 2014 Spring Game, Bohl's comments reflected the philosophy that he learned as a Cornhusker and adapted, with great success, as the head coach at North Dakota State for 11 years.

"What do they say, 'Offense sells tickets and defense wins championships,' there's a lot to be said for that," said Bohl. "Our style of football has always been such that we're going to leverage our defense.

EDDIE YARBROUGH

"This football team really wants to be good, and it's our job as coaches to show them how to be good and change the culture.

"We've got to be a much more hard-nosed, physical football team. We've got to be able to control both sides of the line of scrimmage to really put our stamp on what type of team we want to be, and that's what we call 'Cowboy Tough.'

"It's all a process in becoming a 'Cowboy Tough' football team. It's not an easy process. We're pleased with our progress (in spring), but we're not content with where we're at."

Bohl welcomes back 17 starters and 44 letterwinners from last year's Cowboy team.

Six offensive starters return from last season, nine return on defense and both the Pokes' starting place-kicker and punter return. The 44 returning lettermen are evenly divided, with 21 on offense, 19 on defense and four on special teams. In addition to the 17 returning starters from a year ago, the Cowboys have 13 other returning lettermen with starting experience (seven on offense and six on defense.)

Among those returning on offense are: the Cowboys' leading receiver, senior Dominic Rufran (75 receptions for 960 receiving yards); leading rusher, junior Shaun Wick (979 rushing yards); senior wideout Jalen Claiborne (33 catches for 452 yards); sophomore wide receiver Tanner Gentry (39 receptions for 376 yards); junior offensive guard Jake Jones (who has started every game of his career — 24 straight); and senior offensive tackle Connor Rains (12 career starts).

DOMINIC RUFRAN

On defense, First Team All-Mountain West defensive end Eddie Yarbrough returns for his junior season, and Honorable Mention All-MW linebacker Jordan Stanton returns for his senior campaign. Including Stanton, six senior starters return on defense. The other five senior starters returning on defense are: cornerback Blair Burns (32 career starts), defensive lineman Patrick Mertens (30 starts), linebacker Mark Nzeocha (19 starts), defensive end Sonny Puletasi (21 starts), and strong safety Darren White (14 starts), who suffered an injury in week six against New Mexico that knocked him out for the last six games of 2013. Mertens was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA as was another senior, linebacker Devyn Harris, who started two games last season and has 18 career starts to his credit. Sophomores Tim Hayes, a cornerback, and Lucas Wacha, a linebacker, also return after starting seven and 11 games, respectively, in 2013.

Key losses to the Cowboy squad of course include the quarterback position, after three-year starter and Honorable Mention All-Mountain West selection Brett Smith declared for the 2014 NFL Draft following his junior season. Also gone on offense are 2013 seniors: Tyler Strong, who started 32 games at offensive guard during his career; and Honorable Mention All-MW selection Robert Herron, 27 career starts at wide receiver.

On defense, the two senior starters who must be replaced are: Second Team All-Mountain West performer Marqueston Huff, 35 career starts at free safety and cornerback; and defensive lineman Justin Bernthaler, 15 starts over his two-year career at Wyoming.

Adding to the returning group of starters for the 2014 Cowboys will be some other key individuals who missed last season due to injury. Among those are: redshirt junior cornerback Tyran Finley, who started the season opener at Nebraska but was injured in that game and missed the remainder of the season; senior defensive end Riley Lange, who missed the entire 2013 season with an injury; redshirt sophomore running back D.J. May, who also missed all of last year due to injury; and junior offensive tackle Austin Traphagan, who was injured following the fourth game of the season and was out the remainder of 2013.

PATRICK MERTENS

Wyoming's special teams return experience throughout. Senior place-kicker Stuart Williams had only seven total field goal attempts in 2013, making four, as the Cowboy offense was prolific at scoring touchdowns. But Williams was very efficient in point-after-touchdown attempts, converting 47 of 48. Punter Ethan Wood stepped into a starting role as a true freshman in 2013. Wood averaged 42.0 yards per punt, ranking fifth in the Mountain West and 44th in the nation. Another true freshman, Brendan Turelli, handled the starting long-snapping duties from the very first game of his freshman season and returns in 2014.

Bohl's Cowboys will kick off the 2014 season with two home games against regional rivals. The season opener will see Wyoming host Montana on Saturday, Aug. 30. The following week, the Pokes will kick off Mountain West Conference play, hosting the Air Force Falcons. The non-conference schedule will be among the most challenging the Cowboys have faced in recent history as they will travel to Eugene, Ore., on Sept. 13 in the first-ever meeting versus the Oregon Ducks. Two weeks later, Wyoming will travel to East Lansing, Mich., to play the Michigan State Spartans on Sept. 27. Oregon concluded last season ranked No. 9 in both the final Associated Press Poll and USA Today Coaches Poll. Michigan State ended 2013 ranked No. 3 in both final national polls. Both the Ducks and Spartans will likely be ranked among the top teams entering the 2014 season.

Bohl was asked at the conclusion of spring drills to comment on the progress his team made through spring practices.

JORDAN STANTON

"I think we made strides as far as understanding how hard we need to practice," said Bohl. "We went into a composition (of practice) that was a little bit different for this group of players as far as double reps, which meant our guys practiced a whole lot more. And they got tired. Sometimes unless you've really hit a baseline of understanding how hard you have to go when you're tired, you can't take that next step. We're laying a foundation, which we're encouraged about."

"Ballgames get decided most of the time in the fourth quarter, and teams drastically change in the fourth quarter, so that mentality of being disciplined and persevering is key. Those are the things that are going to separate us and that is part of Cowboy Tough football. We are making progress, but we are a ways away from where we need to be."

"I think certainly in terms of installing our systems on offense, defense and in the kicking game we made good progress."

"The last phase is sorting out personnel. We're not where we want to be yet, but I think we have a clearer understanding heading into the fall."

One thing that the first-year Cowboy head coach was pleased with throughout spring practice was the work ethic and attitude of his team.

"We've been really pleased with the effort by our players," said Bohl. "They're doing everything we've asked of them, and are making great gains in the weight room. We can't wait to get started in the fall."

OFFENSE

Quarterbacks

Spring drills provided Bohl and his staff an opportunity to evaluate a number of quarterbacks as they looked to replace three-year starter Brett Smith. Senior Colby Kirkegaard came out of the spring listed No. 1 on the depth chart. Sophomore Tom Thornton, who was the backup last season, was listed No. 2. Senior Sam Stratton, who is healthy again and has switched back to his original quarterback position from wide receiver, was listed third coming out of spring. Junior-college transfer Aaron Young, who came to Wyoming as a sophomore with three years of eligibility, was listed fourth on the final spring depth. Two freshmen QBs will join the competition next fall. Those two freshmen are Austin Fort, from Gillette, Wyo., and Nick Smith, from Merritt Island, Fla. Former Indiana University quarterback Cameron Coffman transferred to Wyoming in the summer of 2014, but will have to sit out the upcoming season to satisfy NCAA transfer rules. Coffman will have one year of eligibility remaining.

"Colby (Kirkegaard) has separated himself slightly over the other guys," said Bohl as the Cowboys concluded Spring Drills. "His understanding of the offense and competency in executing the offense is a little bit better. Tom (Thornton) and Sam (Stratton) are next. Those two are both making some plays. Aaron (Young) is behind them right now."

"Colby has a little bit better command of the offense. His read progression and knowing where he is supposed to go with the football and then putting the ball where it needs to be is just a little bit ahead of the other quarterbacks. But we're going to continue to work with all the quarterbacks on improving their understanding and execution of the offense."

"I know Coach (Brent) Vigen is real mindful of where we need to be, bringing those guys along, and then finding out what they can do well and what things they can't. Then we'll probably have to tailor our offense to play to their strengths. To say we have a system and we're going to stick to our system no matter what, I think is pretty short-sighted. We have flexibility within our system to highlight those quarterbacks' skills."

Running Backs

Running back should be one of the deepest positions for the Cowboys in 2014. Junior Shaun Wick returns after leading Wyoming with 979 rushing yards as a sophomore in 2013. Sophomore Omar Stover saw action in four games last season as a true freshman. Redshirt sophomore D.J. May, who rushed for 374 yards as a freshman in 2012, returns after missing all of 2013 with an injury. Another sophomore, Oscar Nevermann, also returns in 2014. Joshua Tapscott will compete for playing time after redshirting his freshman season of 2013. Like the quarterback position, two freshmen, Brian Hill from Belleville, Ill., and Nico Evans from Los Angeles, Calif., come on board in the fall.

SHAUN WICK

During spring drills, Bohl commented several times on how pleased he was with the running back corps, particularly the two veteran backs May and Wick.

"Having D.J. (May) and Shaun (Wick) at that spot in a tailback-oriented offense really helps," said Bohl. "Both those guys have been pleasant surprises to me. I frankly didn't know if we would be as good at that position when we arrived, but we've been very pleased with the play of our running backs. There are some differences between the two. D.J. has got maybe a little bit more breakaway ability. Shaun is a guy who is really paying attention to detail, getting all his reads right and all his assignments down."

"The power running game is a big part of our offense, and we saw some good improvement in that this spring."

"It's old time football, but those are the principles that have worked for us, and we'll need to continue with that mindset — to be physical with our offensive line and our running game. That's going to be our real ace in the hole, so we're going to continue to emphasize that."

"Everybody says they want to run the football, but you've got to spend time on it and grind it out, and we're in the process of doing that."

Wide Receivers

The Cowboy receiving corps returns seven of its top 10 receivers from a year ago, and three of four starters. Leading that group will be senior Dominic Rufran, who led UW in both receptions (75) and receiving yards (960) as a junior. Sophomore Tanner Gentry had 39 catches for 376 yards in a starting role as a true freshman in 2013, and senior Jalen Claiborne caught 33 passes for 452 yards his junior campaign. Running back Wick also contributed over 20 receptions, with 21 catches for 118 yards. The two individuals who will be missed from the receiving corps will be 2013 Honorable Mention All-MW receiver Robert Herron (72 catches for 937 yards) and former running back/wide receiver Brandon Miller (23 receptions for 193 yards in 2013), who both completed their senior seasons last year. Herron was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the ninth pick in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

The receiving corps was another area of the team that Bohl was encouraged by their performance in the spring.

"We've got some good skill level at the wide receiver position," said Bohl. "I know we've got quite a bit of depth and some pretty good playmakers at receiver, and I thought they did a nice job in the spring. Coach (Kenni) Burns has done a nice job with that group. I thought their routes were precise. I thought they came out of their routes well. Overall, it was a good performance by our receiving corps."

Fullbacks & Tight Ends

Fullbacks and tight ends will be two positions that Bohl and his staff will be looking to fill as they implement their West-Coast offense. Former H-Back Drew Van Maanen moved to fullback in the spring of 2014. Senior J.D. Krill is the only true tight end in the Cowboy Football program returning from last season. Junior-college transfer Jacob Hollister and converted wide receiver Eric Nzeocha, both sophomores, round out the tight ends who participated in spring practice. Three true freshmen were part of the 2014 recruiting class and will join the program in the fall. Those three are: Brinkley Jolly, Grant Lewis and Tyree Mayfield.

"The fullback and tight-end positions are unproven positions on our team right now," said Bohl. "Those spots are going to have an impact on our offense and where we can take our offense from here. We're going to be a work in progress through this next year. The sooner we can integrate those players, whether it's the tight end or the fullback, into our system I think it is going to have a big, big impact on what exactly we can do."

Offensive Linemen

Wyoming's offensive line will be led by junior offensive guard Jake Jones, who has started every game (24) since the beginning of his redshirt freshman season of 2012. Also returning are senior offensive tackle Connor Rains, who started 12 games a year ago in his first season playing for UW. The biggest loss on the O-Line is three-year starter Tyler Strong at left guard. Strong completed his Cowboy career starting 32 of 42 career games. Also gone is center Albert Perez, who started six games at center in his one year playing for the Cowboys after transferring from junior college, and Walker Madden, who started 10 games at left tackle as a junior. Four other Cowboys on the offensive line return with starting experience under their belts. Junior Rafe Kiely started five of the last seven games at center last season. Sophomore Chase Roullier started in each of the last two games of the 2013 season, one game at center and one at guard, and sophomore Nathan Leddige started the last two games of 2013 at left tackle. Also coming back from injury this season will be junior Austin Traphagan, who missed the final eight games of 2013 due to injury, but played in seven games as a redshirt freshman in 2012 and started one game versus Boise State.

Asked about where he felt the development of the offensive line stood entering the fall Bohl stated, "We're a little bit ahead of where we thought, but we may not have as much depth as what we would like."

"I think at the center position — we may have picked up a couple guys there to give us some depth. We're thin at the tackle spot. That is going to be a critical position not only when we talk about the running game but our pass protection, as well."

"But the thing that our guys have is a 'want to' to play well and to get better. As long as they're taking coaching and getting better then we're going to improve."

"The double reps that we run in practice are the best way we know to develop depth. That system works, it's just that we've got to bring the guys along — probably not as fast as what Coach (Scott) Fuchs or myself would like. But we just need to continue to make progress every day in practice."

DEFENSE

The Wyoming defensive coaching staff is shifting the Cowboys to a Tampa 2, 4-3 defensive scheme that was very successful at North Dakota State. Bohl was encouraged by much of what he saw from his first team defensive unit during 2014 spring drills, but he repeated throughout spring the need for more depth.

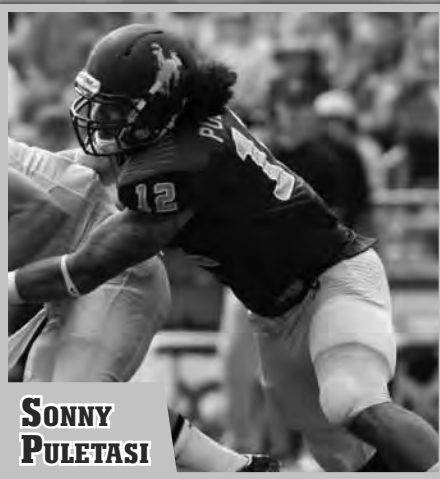

/wyofootball

SONNY PULETASI

"Defensively, particularly our first team defense, we were pleased about a lot of what we saw in the spring," said Bohl. "Our defensive front and the pressure they were able to put on our quarterbacks was a real positive. I also saw some good plays by our secondary that were encouraging. I'm a little bit concerned about our depth on defense, and that was apparent in the course of spring."

Defensive Line

On the defensive line, Eddie Yarbrough returns for his junior season after earning First Team All-Mountain West honors at defensive end as a sophomore. Senior Patrick Mertens was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA. He will bring a wealth of experience to the Cowboy defense. Two other returning Cowboys who played the "Buck" position last year, which was a hybrid defensive end/outside linebacker position, are senior starter Sonny Puletasi and junior Siaosi Hala'api'api. They will both play defensive end in the new 4-3 defense. Joining those veterans will be senior defensive end Riley Lange, who missed 2013 due to injury. At nose tackle, sophomore Uso Olive, who played in 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 2013, and sophomore Chase Appleby will battle for the starting spot.

"I think our defensive front is going to fit well with our 4-3 defensive scheme, and we're happy with those guys," said Bohl. "Our defensive ends are high-energy guys that have played football in the Mountain West and have played at a high level. Sonny (Puletasi) and Eddie (Yarbrough) are going to give us good experience at the ends. We're going to need to leverage that to take some pressure off other areas of our football team."

"Along with that though, we can't completely focus on the ends. A lot of that pressure comes about due to push — push up the middle from our defensive tackles. I thought our defensive tackles did a nice job in the spring, particularly Pat Mertens, I noticed it during the scrimmages, and then that bore out when we watched tape."

"Inside at nose tackle, between Chase (Appleby) and Uso (Olive) we're in pretty solid shape there. But I named off only five guys, and to have an effective defensive line in the Mountain West we are going to need to develop depth. Whether we can have some incoming freshmen help us out there or develop some guys within our football team is going to be important."

Linebackers

The Cowboys also have four linebackers returning with starting experience, three of which are seniors. Senior Jordan Stanton returns in the middle after earning Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors a year ago. Stanton led the Cowboys with 134 tackles, and ranked No. 3 in the nation, averaging 11.2 tackles per game. Fellow senior Mark Nzeocha started all 12 games his junior season. Sophomore Lucas Wach started 11 of 12 games in 2013 as a redshirt freshman. The third senior returning is Devyn Harris, who like defensive lineman Mertens was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA. Harris has 18 career starts to his credit.

MARK

"We run a pro-style, Tampa-2 defense, a pure NFL system on defense, and as the result of that there is a lot that goes on in a linebacker's head," said Bohl. "Most college systems the linebackers are in their gaps, and they don't have to move around a bunch, but our guys do a lot."

One of Wyoming's veteran linebackers that Bohl feels fits very well into the Tampa-2 defense is senior Nzeocha.

"Mark (Nzeocha) has good ability — he can cover a lot of ground," said Bohl. "You can certainly see that he has the ability to close on a play very quickly. He has good range, and he did a nice job tackling during spring. He is the type of athletic linebacker that fits our system well."

"Coach (Steve) Stanard is doing a great job with the linebackers. We have a pretty seasoned group of guys there, but it's all new to them right now and it is a very complicated system to learn."

Secondary

Wyoming's secondary returns three experienced seniors and two sophomores who all started multiple games a year ago. The most experienced member of the group is senior cornerback Blair Burns, who has started 32 games entering his senior season. Darren White will be returning from injury in 2014. The senior had started 14 consecutive games at safety for the Pokes prior to being injured in the sixth game of the 2013 season. That injury caused him to miss the final six games last year. The third senior who returns to the Cowboy secondary after starting multiple games last season is cornerback DeAndre Jones. Jones started the final four games in 2013, and has six career starts to his credit. The two sophomores with starting experience are cornerback Tim Hayes and strong safety Xavier Lewis.

BLAIR
BURNS

Hayes started eight games at cornerback as a true freshman in 2013, while Lewis started the final two games of his true freshman season at strong safety. Redshirt junior Tyran Finley started at corner in the 2013 season opener at Nebraska, but was injured in that game and missed the remainder of the season. Senior Jesse Sampson also started one game in 2013, against Colorado State, but nagging injuries limited him to only four games after transferring to UW from junior college.

DARRENN
WHITE

"I think we've got some good athleticism in our secondary," said Bohl. "The corner spot, I think can be a strong suit for our defense. There's going to be a lot of times where we'll probably play with three of them."

"Blair Burns did some great things at the corner position during the spring — not only on coverage but also I thought he did a good job tackling."

"So much of what our safeties do is dependent on run fits. I know that most time people think of safeties as deep middle players, and we'll have deep middle players or deep half players occasionally, but our safeties are going to be actively involved in a variety of facets of our defense."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Experience abounds on Wyoming's special teams' unit. The Pokes return their: starting place-kicker, senior Stuart Williams; starting punter, sophomore Ethan Wood; starting long snapper, sophomore Brendan Turelli; and starting holder, senior Sam Stratton. Also returning is junior Justin Martin, who has served as Wyoming's kickoff specialist parts of the past two seasons.

"We did some good things in the kicking game during spring ball", said Bohl. "We worked with Stu (Williams) a lot on his field goals and extra points. Ethan (Wood) has a year under his belt, and Brendan (Turelli) and Sam (Stratton) have a year working together, so we feel like we have a good base to work from in our special teams."

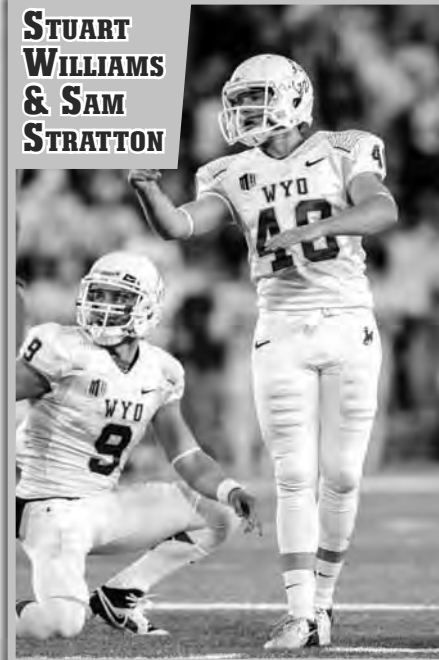

Bohl's enthusiasm for his new role as Wyoming's 32nd head football coach came through on his first day in Laramie when he was announced at a Sunday press conference, and that enthusiasm carried through the entire spring.

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that."

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman, UW Athletics Director) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success."

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Bohl and his Cowboys will continue their preparation for the 2014 season when they begin practice the first week of August.

COWBOY COACHES

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

Craig Bohl, who has been a part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl becomes the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

Bohl came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that."

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success."

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record in 2013. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of the past four seasons, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the 27-year history of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams have been built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 11 years of experience as a head coach at North Dakota State, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska where he was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams.

Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003.

Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska — eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

From 2004-2007, Bohl helped lead North Dakota State through its transition to the NCAA FCS level. During that transition period, his teams posted back-to-back 10-1 seasons in 2006 and 2007, but weren't eligible for postseason play due to NCAA rules regarding teams moving up a division.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2014 season will be Bohl's 34th year coaching at the college level, including 12 years as a head coach, 19 as a full-time assistant coach and three seasons as a graduate assistant. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 56 years old when the 2014 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory, Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Steve Stanard will enter his 27th year of coaching at the college level in 2014 and will begin his 18th year as a defensive coordinator. Stanard will be the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Wyoming Cowboys. He was the linebackers coach at North Dakota State the past two seasons, helping the Bison capture the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Titles.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66. In Stanard's two years on the North Dakota State staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1.

Stanard has been a part of five bowl games and three national playoff appearances as a college coach.

As the linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13, Stanard helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense each of those two seasons, holding opponents to only 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2013, Stanard coached Third Team All-America linebacker Grant Olson, who was honored as an All-American by the Associated Press. Olson set a school record with 29 tackles in NDSU's 14-7 win over Wofford College in the 2012 NCAA FCS quarterfinals.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07) under former head coach Sonny Lubick, three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the D-coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95) where he was also the head coach his final two seasons.

His defenses at Tulane led Conference USA in pass defense two of three seasons, and he coached seven All-Conference performers and two All-Freshman honorees.

Prior to Tulane, Stanard served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008 for head coach Frank Solich. The Bobcats ranked in the top six of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in: total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. He coached Second Team All-MAC defensive tackle Jameson Hartke, who also earned Academic All-MAC and Academic All-District honors.

Stanard is very familiar with the Mountain West Conference, having served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State for five seasons from 2003-07. Stanard helped lead CSU to two bowl appearances, the 2003 San Francisco Bowl and 2005 Poinsettia Bowl. Four of Stanard's CSU defenders earned First of Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors, and another 24 earned Honorable Mention All-MW recognition. Linebacker Eric Pauly was an All-Mountain West selection at linebacker and was a three-time Academic All-American. His 2006 defense ranked in the MW's top four in scoring defense, pass defense, pass defense efficiency, sacks, fewest opponent first downs allowed and opponent third-down conversions. CSU was the only team in the MW in 2006 that had three defenders ranked among the league's top individual tacklers. Stanard's 2004 and '05 defenses led the conference in pass defense.

Prior to Colorado State, Stanard coached at New Mexico State University for six seasons from 1997-2002 where he served as the defensive ends/outside linebackers coach the first three years and defensive coordinator the final three. Stanard coached linebackers Dwayne Taylor and Jimmy Cottrell at NMSU. Taylor was a three-time All-Conference selection, concluded his career with 364 tackles, 40 tackles for loss and four interceptions. Taylor went on to play in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders and Montreal Alouettes. Cottrell set a Western Athletic Conference single-season record in 2005 with 179 tackles. He went on to earn Honorable Mention All-America honors from SI.com and became the first player in New Mexico State history to lead his team in tackles all four seasons.

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, under head coach Tom Osborne. At Nebraska, Stanard saw the Huskers earn seven bowl bids during his time as a student-athlete or coach. After beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Stanard coached at Nebraska Wesleyan University for five years, serving as the school's defensive coordinator, head coach and an assistant athletic director during that five-year span.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and completed his master's degree in 1995 in business administration.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children, Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

BRENT VIGEN

(North Dakota State '98)

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach

Brent Vigen takes over as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2014. He brings 16 years of previous college-coaching experience with him to Wyoming and five years experience as an offensive coordinator. Vigen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Dakota State under new Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl from 2009-13. He began his college coaching career at his alma mater, NDSU, in 1998.

Vigen was the offensive coordinator for each of North Dakota State's three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13. In 2013, Vigen's offense at North Dakota State ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%). Vigen's 2011 offense ranked No. 5 in the country in red-zone offense (91.1%).

From 2011 through 2013, Vigen helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

He coached quarterback Brock Jensen, who earned Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press in 2013 and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins in the Spring of 2014. Jensen was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 2013. He also was named the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Division I Championship Game MVP; the 2012 and 2013 College Sporting News FCS Playoff MVP; and the 2013 College Sports Journal FCS Playoff MVP. Jensen ranked: No. 4 in the country in points responsible for in 2013 (264 points); No. 5 in the nation in passing efficiency (167.4 rating); No. 5 in passing TDs (34); No. 9 in the nation in completion percentage (66.3 percent); and No. 23 in passing yards (2,793). Jensen set North Dakota State single-season passing records in 2011, throwing for 2,524 yards and broke that record with 2,793 passing yards in 2013. He concluded his career as North Dakota State's career passing leader, with 8,598 passing yards.

The 2013 Bison offense featured three All-Americans. In addition to Jensen earning Third Team AP All-America honors, offensive tackle Billy Turner was named a Consensus All-American and fullback Andrew Grothmann earned First Team All-America recognition from The Sports Network.

In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while Vigen's 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Vigen began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Bison from 1998-2000. He became a full-time coach in 2001, coaching the NDSU tight ends in 2001 and quarterbacks in 2002. He remained at his alma mater as the running backs coach in 2003 when Craig Bohl became head coach of the Bison. From 2004-08, Vigen was elevated to passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and in 2009 he was named offensive coordinator and continued to coach the Bison QBs.

He coached two-time All-America tight end Jared Peck in 2000 and 2001. Peck went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos.

Vigen helped to develop two-time Great West Football Conference Player of the Year, quarterback Steve Walker, who earned the honor in 2006 and 2007. North Dakota State was 8th in rushing offense (219.82 ypg) and 19th in total offense (400.09 ypg) in the 2009 NCAA Division I FCS statistics. Running back Pat Paschall led the FCS in rushing yards per game (139.7) in 2009.

As a player, Vigen was a tight end for the Bison from 1993-97. He was part of three NCAA Division II Playoff squads in 1994, '95 and '97. In 1994, he helped lead NDSU to the North Central Conference (NCC) Championship. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals in 1994 and '95 and the First Round of the 1997 Playoffs.

A native of Buxton, N.D., Vigen earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in 1998 in physical education and completed his master's degree in secondary education, also from North Dakota State in 2000. He and his wife, Molly, have three boys, Jake, Grant and Luke. Molly played basketball at NDSU and was a member of the 1996 NCAA Division II National Championship team and three NCC title squads.

Mike Bath joins the Wyoming Football program from Miami University (Ohio). He is entering his 11th season as a coach at the college level. He will coach the Wyoming running backs and fullbacks in 2014. Bath most recently served as the interim head coach at Miami, his alma mater, in 2013. He was named interim head coach on Oct. 6, 2013, and also assumed the role as offensive coordinator at that time after beginning the season coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Bath returned to his alma mater in 2011 to coach the wide receivers and tight ends. In 2012, he moved into the role of quarterbacks coach, and coached Miami QB Zac Dysert, who set school records for career total offense (12,678) and career passing yards (12,013). Dysert was drafted by the Denver Broncos in 2013, and was part of a Bronco team that made a run to the Super Bowl his rookie season. Bath also coached wide receiver Andy Cruse at Miami. Cruse signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans in 2013 and was on the Texans' practice squad his rookie year.

Bath began his college coaching career in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for his alma mater. After serving as a graduate assistant in 2004 and 2005, he was named a full-time assistant in 2006 and coached the RedHawk tight ends for three seasons from 2006-08. Two of his tight ends, Tom Crabtree and Jake O'Connell, went on to play in the NFL.

In 2009, Bath accepted the opportunity to become an offensive coordinator at Ashland University in Ashland, Ohio. After serving as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach for two seasons (2009-10), he returned to Miami in 2011.

During his time as an assistant coach at Miami, the RedHawks captured three Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division Championships (2004, '05 and '07) and made an Independence Bowl appearance in 2004.

A three-year starter at quarterback for Miami from 1998-2000, he compiled a record of 23-10 as a starter and led the RedHawks to the MAC East Division Co-Championship as a sophomore in 1998. That team posted a 10-1 record overall and a 7-1 conference mark. Among those 10 wins in '98 was a 13-10 upset victory over No. 12 ranked North Carolina and a 14-13 non-conference victory over Army. His junior season, Miami upset Northwestern of the Big Ten by a score of 28-3 on the road, and his senior season, the RedHawks defeated Vanderbilt of the SEC 33-30 in Nashville, Tenn. Bath was named his team's Co-MVP his senior season.

At the conclusion of his college playing career, Bath had set then Miami career records of 6,524 yards passing and 49 passing touchdowns.

He earned a double major at Miami in marketing and organizational behavior in 2001. Bath and his wife, Tara, have three children, Colton, Savannah and Case.

DAVID BROWN II

(Cal Poly '96)
Secondary/Safeties

David Brown enters his first season at Wyoming as the secondary and safeties coach in 2014 after coaching the Fresno State safeties in 2013. Brown has three years experience as a head coach at Missouri University of Science and Technology in Rolla, Mo., which is an NCAA Division II program. He was the head coach at Missouri S&T from 2010-12.

Prior to that, Brown coached the cornerbacks at Ohio University for four seasons from 2006-09 under Bobcat head coach Frank Solich. During his time at Ohio, he coached with current Wyoming defensive coordinator Steve Stanard, who was the Bobcats' defensive line coach in 2008.

In 2013, Brown helped guide Fresno State to the Mountain West Conference Championship. The Bulldogs posted an 11-2 overall record and a 7-1 conference mark. The Bulldogs won the inaugural Mountain West Football Championship Game, by a score of 24-17 over Utah State, and earned a berth in the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl where they faced USC.

Fresno State finished the season ranked: 20th in the Final 2013 Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Standings; 20th in the Harris Interactive Poll; and 27th in both the final USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll.

At Fresno State, Brown coached First Team All-Mountain West safety Derron Smith. Smith was named to two national defensive award watch lists in 2013 — the Bednarik Award Watch List (top defensive player of the year) and the Jim Thorpe Award Watch List (top defensive back). Smith was also a quarterfinalist for the Lott Impact Trophy Award, which takes into account a student-athlete's leadership ability, performance on the field, academic record and community service activities.

For three seasons from 2010-12, Brown was the head coach and defensive coordinator at Missouri S&T. His final season at Missouri S&T, Brown led the Miners to a 10-1 record and a No. 24 national ranking. His team's 10 wins tied for the most in school history. The Miners' No. 24 national ranking marked the first time since 1980 that they had ended a season in the national rankings. He took over a program that had a record of 4-7 the year prior to him becoming head coach. In Brown's three years at Missouri S&T, the Miners went from 3-8 in 2010, to 6-5 in 2011 to 10-1 in 2012. Brown was named the Great Lakes Football Conference Co-Coach of the Year in 2011. He concluded his three seasons as head coach with a 19-14 overall record. His 2012 Miners led the nation in turnover margin and recorded a school record 45 sacks, while ranking 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense and allowed just 18.6 points per game.

At Ohio, Brown helped lead the Bobcats to two Mid-American Conference division titles and two bowl appearances following the 2006 and 2009 seasons. His 2009 secondary ranked No. 18 in the FBS in pass defense efficiency. The Bobcats led the nation that year with 37 turnovers gained, ranked No. 7 in the country in interceptions (20) and ranked No. 28 in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing only 21.3 points per game.

From 2001-05, he coached at his alma mater, Cal Poly. His last two seasons at Cal Poly, he served as defensive coordinator. In 2004 and 2005, Cal Poly won the Great West Football Conference Championship, and in 2005 the Mustangs earned their first berth and first victory in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs, now the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Both of his seasons as Cal Poly's defensive coordinator, his defense featured the Buck Buchanan Award Winner, which is presented to the outstanding defensive player in the nation at the FCS level. Mustang linebacker Jordan Beck won the award in 2004, and defensive end Chris Gocong captured the award in 2005.

Brown's Cal Poly defenses in 2004 and 2005 ranked among the nation's best as both teams led the nation in quarterback sacks, including a school record 67 sacks in 2005. His 2004 defense led the nation in rushing defense, allowing on average only 84.3 yards per game. His defenses also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in scoring defense, turnovers gained and interceptions.

He began his coaching career as the secondary coach at Allan Hancock Community College in Santa Maria, Calif., in 1996. The next season (1997), he coached defensive backs at Claremont McKenna College in Claremont, Calif., an NCAA Division III program. In 1998, he served as the defensive coordinator for the Cologne Crocodiles in Cologne, Germany. Brown was the defensive coordinator at Venice High School in Los Angeles, Calif. in 1999. His first NCAA Division I college coaching position came in 2000 as the running backs coach at Idaho State.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Brown completed internships with the Detroit Lions and Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the NFL.

A native of Los Angeles, Brown played defensive back at Cal Poly from 1993-95 after playing at Santa Monica College in 1991. He began his college playing career at Howard University in 1990. Brown completed his bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly in 1996 and achieved a master's of education degree with an emphasis in cross-cultural teaching from the National University in San Diego in 2000.

He and his wife, Elisabeth, have three sons, David III, Isaac and Joshua.

Kenni Burns will coach the Cowboy wide receivers in 2014. Burns came to Wyoming from North Dakota State with new Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl. Burns coached the wide receivers at NDSU for four seasons from 2010-13. His last two seasons with the Bison, he also served as the recruiting coordinator.

Burns was the wide receivers coach for each of North Dakota State's three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13. In 2013, the Bison offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

From 2011 through 2013, Burns helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

In 2013, Burns coached junior wide receiver Zach Vraa, who recorded a 1,000-yard receiving season, with 1,191 yards on 67 receptions and had 15 touchdown receptions. Vraa earned First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as a junior. Burns coached former NDSU receiver Warren Holloway in 2011, who had 77 receptions for 1,003 yards and eight receiving TDs. Burns also coached Ryan Smith, who earned Second Team All-MVFC honors at both wide receiver and return specialist in 2012.

In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Burns receiving corps played a key role in blocking for the successful running game. Two of those years also saw a Bison receiver record a 1,000-yard season. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured a 1,000-yard receiver and two 1,000-yard rushers in the same year. Wide receiver Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards, while Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton ran for 1,020. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw receiver Vraa tally 1,191 receiving yards as Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicated their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year.

Burns will be entering his eighth year as a college coach in 2014. Prior to joining the NDSU coaching staff in 2010, he spent two seasons as the tight ends coach at Southern Illinois. In addition to being part of three National Championships and three Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) titles at NDSU, he was also part of two MVFC titles at Southern Illinois and two FCS playoff appearances with the Salukis. SIU played in the First Round of the 2008 FCS Playoffs and advanced to the Quarterfinals of the 2009 Playoffs. Southern Illinois had a combined overall record of 20-5 (.800) in 2008 and '09 and a combined conference record of 15-1 (.938). The Salukis tied for the MVFC title in 2008, with a 7-1 conference mark, and won the league outright in 2009, with a perfect 8-0 MVFC record.

The tight ends played a key role in the SIU offense. Burns coached two-time Honorable Mention All-Conference tight end Ryan Kernes at SIU. The Southern Illinois offense ranked No. 5 in the nation in rushing offense in 2009, averaging 221.1 yards per game.

Burns began his coaching career at Millersville (Pa.) University in 2007, where he coached the running backs.

He played running back himself at Indiana University from 2003-06. Burns was a three-year letterwinner for the Hoosiers. As a student-athlete at IU, Burns was active in student government. He served as the Athletic Project Manager, and served as a liaison between student government and the athletic department.

Burns completed his bachelor's degree in general studies at Indiana in December 2006.

AJ COOPER

(North Dakota State '06)

Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Ends Coach

AJ Cooper comes to Wyoming after serving as a member of North Dakota State's coaching staff the past eight seasons. His coaching career followed an outstanding playing career for the Bison. Cooper has been the defensive ends coach for NDSU the past five seasons and will continue in that role at Wyoming along with coordinating special teams.

From 2011 through 2013, Cooper helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As a member of the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2011, '12 and '13, Richardson helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In addition to coaching the defensive ends, Cooper served as NDSU's football camp and clinic director.

Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08.

Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State include: Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Boyer was also an All-MVFC First Team honoree in 2011 and was a Second Team selection in 2010. He finished his career ranked No. 4 in school history in career sacks, with 27.5. Cooper coached defensive end Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. Jirik also earned Second Team All-MVFC honors in 2012, and concluded his career ranked No. 5 in Bison history in career sacks (26.0). A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn all-conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013 and an Honorable Mention All-MVFC honoree in 2012.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors.

Following his college playing career, Cooper signed as a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college career at Glendale Community College. His final season of junior college, he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories — receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have one son, Carter Johnson.

Scott Fuchs will begin his 21st season as a college coach in 2014. He brings a great deal of knowledge coaching offensive linemen with him to Wyoming as 19 of his previous 20 years of coaching experience have been as an offensive line coach. In 10 of his previous 20 seasons as a college coach, Fuchs has helped coach his teams to either the NCAA Division II or Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, he was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association First Team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater the past five seasons (2009-13).

From 2011 through 2013, Fuchs helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. In 2011, Fuchs coached Consensus All-America offensive tackle Paul Cornick, and former center Joe Lund, who was selected as the FCS Rimington Award winner, which is presented to the top center in the nation each season. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 31 All-Conference performers during his career.

Fuchs has been on coaching staffs that have won nine conference titles during his college coaching career.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

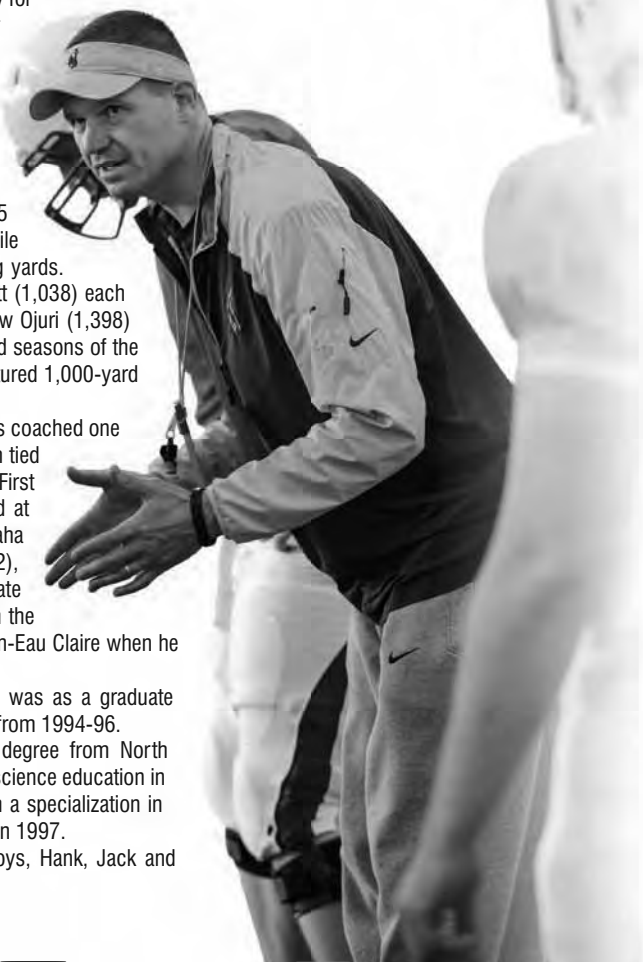

Fuchs offensive lines helped pave the way for North Dakota State to have a 1,000-yard rusher for 11 consecutive seasons. In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers each season. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while the 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the First Round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs' first position as a college coach was as a graduate assistant at NDSU working with the tight ends from 1994-96.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

PETE KALIGIS

(Washington '94)
Defensive Tackles Coach

Pete Kaligis will coach the Wyoming defensive tackles on Craig Bohl's staff at Wyoming in 2014. This will be Kaligis' sixth season at Wyoming. He coached the offensive line and running backs during his past five seasons at Wyoming. In 2013, he served as Assistant Head Coach, Co-Offensive Coordinator and Running Backs Coach for the Wyoming Cowboys. He added the offensive coordinator duties to his responsibilities in February of 2013. The 2014 season will mark Kaligis' 20th season as a college coach.

He coached the Cowboy running backs in 2012 and '13. In 2013, sophomore running back Shaun Wick nearly reached the 1,000-yard plateau, rushing for 979 yards. Kaligis' first four years at Wyoming, he coached the Cowboy offensive line.

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011 the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

During his previous years coaching at the college level, Kaligis has been a part of 12 teams that advanced to postseason play, including five bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. In addition to the Cowboys' appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and UW's win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl (losing to Kansas State, 24-20), won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl (losing to Purdue, 34-24).

An outstanding college football player and track athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and former head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. He was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

John Richardson takes over as cornerbacks coach for the Wyoming Cowboys in 2014. He coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012 and '13. He has been a member of the NDSU staff since 2009, spending the 2009 and '10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011, '12 and '13.

From 2011 through 2013, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As a member of the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2011, '12 and '13, Richardson helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2012 and '13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft. NDSU defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

A starting cornerback, himself, at NDSU in 2007 and '08, Richardson made 85 tackles over his two-year career, with 57 solo tackles, 19 passes defended, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

Originally from Compton, Calif., Richardson completed his bachelor's degree in sports and recreation leadership in December 2010. He earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Honor Roll honors his senior year of 2008.

He and his wife, Sahfiya, have one son, John Michael.

ZACH DUVAL

(Nebraska '98)

Director of Sports Performance/

Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach

Zach Duval became Wyoming's new Director of Sports Performance and Head Football Strength Coach in 2014 after serving in the same role at the University of Buffalo for four seasons from 2010-13.

While at Buffalo, Duval coached All-America linebacker Khalil Mack. Mack, who earned First Team All-America honors his senior season, was taken as the fifth overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Mack set the NCAA career record for forced fumbles, forcing 16 fumbles over his four-year career. Mack was named the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Defensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2013. He was also selected as the recipient of the 2013 Jack Lambert Award, given to the nation's top linebacker by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, Ohio. He finished second in voting for the 2013 Butkus Award. Buffalo earned a berth in the 2013 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl versus San Diego State.

Duval brings a wealth of experience in strength and conditioning both at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level and in private business.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in the University of Nebraska "Husker Power" strength training program from 1995-96. Duval was elevated to the position of football strength coach at Nebraska from 1997-2002. During his eight years with the Huskers, NU won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

In 2002, Duval entered private business, founding the Xplosive Edge performance center. His company developed specialized computer software to be utilized by strength-training professionals. Duval's company was involved in both athletic performance and management of a wellness spa. During his time in private business, he co-owned and managed The Performance and Wellness Institute in Greeley, Colo. He was in private business for six years from 2002-07. He returned to Nebraska for the 2008 season.

Prior to taking over as Director of Sports Performance at Buffalo, Duval was the Director of Athletic Performance at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. He developed and supervised strength and conditioning programs for Creighton's 14 NCAA Division I athletic programs. He also had oversight over nutrition for the Bluejays' athletics teams in 2009.

Duval and his wife, Sarah, have five children: Sonja, Bronx, Jaggar, Capri and Zolie.

Gordie Haug will serve as the Director of Recruiting for the Wyoming Football program in 2014. He was a member of Coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant. In his new role with the Cowboys, Haug will focus on all recruiting efforts by the Cowboy coaching staff, as well as coordinating summer camps.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, and captured two FCS National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota, where he started as a student assistant, moved into a graduate assistant role and then became an assistant coach on the staff.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in 2009 in community health and master's degree in 2011 in sports science both from Bemidji State.

BRENT VERNON

(Missouri '08)

Director of Football Operations

Brent Vernon enters his second year as Director of Football Operations for Wyoming Football in 2014, after filling the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In his new role, Vernon will coordinate a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget and helping coordinate team functions.

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Wyoming's appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl was the sixth bowl game that Vernon has been a part of in his young career. He of course shared in Wyoming's 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.

He came to Wyoming in the winter of 2009 from the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

HALEY DALLES

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Dalles is entering her fourth year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011. As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Dalles is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping coordinate summer camps. Dalles came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk. A 2001 graduate of Laramie High School, she grew up on the Dalles family ranch west of Laramie.

JAKE CHAPMAN

Video Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Jake Chapman joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filmers. He is proficient in utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud iPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is also one of Chapman's responsibilities. Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches. He supervised student assistant filmers. Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12. In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

RYAN MCGINN

Academic Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Ryan McGinn joined the Office of Academic Support in January of 2012. After working as a graduate assistant for a year, he became an academic coordinator for the football team in 2013. McGinn received an undergraduate degree from Southern Virginia University in history with a minor in business management and leadership in 2011. While at Southern Virginia, McGinn competed in football as a receiver, was a member of the Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society and the Chi Epsilon Omega Business Honors Society and was an Academic All-American. He is on track to earn his master of arts degree in adult and postsecondary education in the spring of 2015. McGinn and his wife Brynn have one daughter, Raegan.

TAYLOR STUEMKY

Academic Coordinator for Cowboy Football and Tutor Program Coordinator

Taylor Stuemky came to the University of Wyoming in November of 2013. She works directly with the Cowboy Football team, and also serves as the Office of Academic Support's Tutor Program Coordinator. Prior to joining the Office of Academic Support, Stuemky worked as a graduate assistant academic counselor for the football team at Kansas State University. She earned her bachelor of science degree in sport and exercise science from the University of Northern Colorado in 2010. Stuemky achieved her master of science degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2013.

ANDREW STROP

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for Cowboy Football

Andrew Strop was hired as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Wyoming Football in the winter of 2014. He came to Wyoming from the University of Buffalo where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach from June 2012 to January 2014. At Buffalo, Strop worked with the sports of football, men's basketball, men's soccer and women's softball. Prior to entering the strength and conditioning field, Strop assisted in the Sports Information Department at the College of the Ozarks from 2009-12 while a student at the Point Lookout, Mo., school. He served on the NAIA Men's Basketball National Tournament Planning Committee at College of the Ozarks from 2010-12. Strop received his bachelor's degree in allied health science from College of the Ozarks in May of 2013. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

QUINN BROWN

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Quinn Brown enters his second year as an offensive graduate assistant with the Wyoming Football program in 2014. He again will work with the Cowboy offensive line. Brown was an offensive lineman at the University of Missouri for four years from 2008-11. During that four-year span, Missouri earned four consecutive bowl bids, won the Big 12 North in 2008 and were co-champions of the Big 12 North in 2010. The 2008 Tiger team was ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today poll and No. 19 in the final Associated Press poll. The 2010 Missouri Tigers concluded the season ranked No. 18 in both the final USA Today and AP polls. In 2012, Brown served as the tight ends coach and assistant special teams coordinator at William Jewell College, an NCAA Division II school in Liberty, Mo. An outstanding all-around athlete, he was a high school quarterback and defensive end at Braymer High School in Braymer, Mo., earning All-District honors at both positions his senior year. He was an All-District selection as a defensive end his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. He was a four-year letterman in football, basketball, baseball and track. He walked on to the team at Missouri as a quarterback. Brown switched to offensive line as a sophomore, and earned his way onto the depth chart as an offensive guard as a senior. His brother, Colin Brown, also played offensive line at Missouri. The elder Brown was drafted in the fifth round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009, and has been a member of the Buffalo Bills since 2010. Quinn Brown completed his bachelor of arts degree in general studies from Missouri in December 2011.

SHANE LADAGE

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Shane LaDage brings three years of previous college coaching experience with him to the Wyoming Football program. LaDage will work with the offensive coaching staff and specifically the Cowboy tight ends in 2014. He served as the wide receivers and tight ends coach at Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., for the 2013 season. While at Saint Joseph's College, LaDage assisted the offensive coordinator in formulating weekly game plans, taught pass and run-game concepts to the wide receivers and tight ends and coordinated the kick-off and punt return teams. The Puma offense ranked No. 1 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) in total offense (417.6 yards per game) and rushing offense (224.1 ypg) in 2013 and ranked No. 2 in scoring offense (28.6 points per game). He helped guide Saint Joseph's College to its second best record in school history, with an 8-3 overall record, and a tie for second place in the GLVC. LaDage coached 2013 First Team All-GLVC tight end Tyler Callaghan and Second Team wide receivers Julian Walker and Alphonso Hines. Prior to coaching at Saint Joseph's College, LaDage coached at his alma mater, Southwest Minnesota State, for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. He coached the tight ends and was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Mustangs. SMSU's offense set the school single-season record for rushing touchdowns in 2012 (23 TD runs), posted the second best single-season rushing total in school history in 2012 (1,888 rushing yards) and recorded the third best single season in total offense (4,363 yards). LaDage coached 2011 Honorable Mention All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) South Division tight end Cody Condon. LaDage was a four-year starter at Southwest Minnesota State from 2007-10. He earned All-NSIC South Division honors in 2009 and '10, and was a team captain his senior season of 2010. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science with a minor in coaching from SMSU, and also completed his master's of education in sports leadership at SMSU.

KEVIN MAY

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Kevin May begins his second year as a defensive graduate assistant with the Wyoming Cowboy Football program. May assists the defensive staff in breaking down and analyzing opponents' offensive film and preparing scouting reports on opponents' offenses. He will also provide the same analysis of opponent punt units and help formulate Wyoming's punt return schemes. Before joining the Cowboy coaching staff as a GA in 2013, May was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Occidental College in Los Angeles, for the 2012 season. He worked with defensive backs and inside linebackers at Occidental, and assisted the defensive coordinator in developing game plans and calling defenses on game days. May assisted the special teams coordinator with all aspects of the kicking game. During the 2012 season, May also served as Occidental Football's video coordinator. Immediately prior to accepting his graduate assistant position at Wyoming, May moved into the role of strength coach for the Occidental Football team from January to July of 2013. A four-year starter at Occidental as a safety and outside linebacker from 2008-11, he was awarded the Captains Award for his leadership, and was presented the Monster Award for his dedication and performance in the strength and conditioning program while a student-athlete. In his senior season of 2011, he became a two-way starter as he also started at tight end on offense. May received a bachelor's degree in economics from Occidental College in 2011.

DOM MIROCKE

Administrative Graduate Assistant

Dom Mirocke enters his first year as a graduate assistant for Wyoming Football in 2014. He will be the administrative graduate assistant for Cowboy Football this coming season. Mirocke spent the 2012 and '13 seasons as an offensive assistant and offensive quality control staff member with the South Dakota State Football program. He was part of two NCAA FCS Playoff teams while at SDSU. South Dakota State concluded the 2012 season ranked No. 11 in the nation and finished the 2013 season ranked No. 13. Mirocke assisted the offensive coordinator and worked with the quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends during practices. He provided the Jackrabbit offensive staff with weekly breakdowns of opponent tendencies and coordinated film breakdown on opponents. Mirocke helped to develop game plans with the offensive coaching staff. Mirocke also assisted in coordinating recruiting visits by coaches to high schools and official campus visits by recruits. Before coaching at South Dakota State, Mirocke was the running backs/fullbacks coach and video coordinator at Southwest Minnesota State for the 2010 and 11 seasons. In addition to coaching the SMSU running backs and fullbacks, he also recruited the Minneapolis, Minn., metro area and southern Minnesota. Mirocke was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter as a tight end at Emporia State University in Kansas from 2006-09. He received his bachelor of integrated studies with an emphasis in physical and health education at Emporia State in 2010, and completed his master's degree in sports leadership at Southwest Minnesota State in 2012.

CORY SULLIVAN

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Cory Sullivan is in his second season as a graduate assistant with the Cowboy Football program. He will once again assist the Cowboy defensive staff in preparing opponent scouting reports and game preparation. Sullivan coordinates both the offensive and special teams scout teams during meetings and practices. He also assisted with the Cowboy linebackers in 2013, and worked with the defensive line in the Spring of 2014. On game days, Sullivan recorded Cowboy defensive play calls and communicated tendencies of opponent offenses to the Wyoming defensive coordinator. Prior to joining the Wyoming Football staff in 2013, Sullivan served as an undergraduate student assistant for the University of Oregon Football program for the 2010, '11 and '12 seasons. During those three seasons, Oregon finished as the BCS runner-up at the conclusion of the 2010 season, won the Rose Bowl following the 2011 season and captured the Fiesta Bowl Championship at the conclusion of the 2012 season. The Ducks also won the Pacific-10 Championship in 2010 and the Pacific-12 Championship in 2011. Sullivan worked the Manning Passing Academy in the summer of 2013. He also worked the Competitive Edge

Football Camp in San Jose, Calif., in the summers of 2012 and '13, as well as working University of Wyoming and University of Oregon Football Camps. He received his bachelor's degree in social sciences at Oregon in 2013, and is currently pursuing his master's degree in education at Wyoming.

THE COWBOYS

Justin BERGER

Wide Receiver
6-2, 198, Senior
Danville, Calif.
(Diablo Valley CC, Calif.)

81

UW This Season: Berger enters fall camp as the No. 5 receiver at the X position and hopes to make an impact in his senior campaign. 2013: Berger played in nine games in 2013, catching two passes for 19 yards. 2012: In 11 games, Berger caught three balls for 36 yards. His best game of the season was at Idaho, when he caught a 15-yard TD pass with less than 12 minutes to go in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 27. Wyoming went on to win the game in overtime, 40-37. Junior College: Berger was used mostly as a blocking tight end at Diablo Valley, but had five catches and one touchdown in his last season. High School: Berger played his high school ball at San Ramon Valley High School. He was named the offensive MVP his senior year, the same year he tallied 42 catches for 758 yards in 10 games. Berger was the Contra Costa County Player of the Week his junior year for an eight-catch, 160-yard performance in which he caught the game-winning TD. He played for head coach Mark Kessler. Personal: Born Nov. 22, 1991, Berger has twin siblings, Sydney and Kendall. He is pursuing a degree in sociology at UW.

UW This Season: Borgs had a good 2014 spring campaign and enters fall camp as the co-starter on the depth chart at the middle linebacker spot. 2013: Playing in 12 games, Borgs tallied three special-teams tackles. He was named to the Academic All-MW team for the third time. 2012: Borgs had three tackles in 12 games through the season, contributing on special teams. He earned his second letter and was named to the Academic All-Mountain West team for the second-straight year. 2011: Borgs played in 13 games through the year as a special teams member, but had no tackles. He earned his first letter for the Cowboys for his efforts. Borgs did his best in the classroom, earning 2011 Mountain West Academic All-Conference honors. High School: With no football in his high school, Borgs played for the Dusseldorf Panthers club team. During his senior season, he was the team's leading tackler and helped guide the squad to a 12-3-1 record and an appearance in the club team tournament final. Borgs made 84 tackles during the season, including 51 solo stops, to go with 12 tackles for loss and two sacks. He also broke up three passes, recovered two fumbles and forced a fumble. As a member of Team Germany, Borgs was named to the All-Tournament team at the 2009 Junior World Football Championship played in Canton, Ohio. Borgs was also named the 2009 Team Germany Defensive MVP. Personal: Born March 14, 1990, he is the son of Linda and Hermann Borgs, and has one older sister, Laura, and one younger sister, Theresa. Borgs was also recruited by Virginia, Oklahoma State, Florida Atlantic and UTEP. He is pursuing a degree in business administration at UW.

Blair BURNS

Cornerback
5-10, 186, Senior
Plano, Texas
(Plano)

20

UW This Season: In his final spring campaign, Burns secured his spot as the top field cornerback on the depth chart following drills. He will serve as the No. 2 punt returner on special teams. 2013: Burns had a solid season as one of UW's starting cornerbacks, tallying a career-high 61 tackles over 12 games. He led all Cowboys with seven pass breakups and had a late interception against Nebraska that allowed the Pokes to stay within striking distance in the first game of the year. He recovered one fumble and had one tackle for loss. 2012: The highlight of Burns' season was a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown versus Colorado State. In the first quarter, UW held a 14-7 lead but the Rams were threatening from the UW 9-yard line. That was until Burns picked off a CSU pass at the UW 1 and raced the length of the field to give the Pokes a two-score lead in an eventual 45-31 Border War win. The return was second longest in school history and tied for third longest in NCAA that season. For the year, Burns finished fourth on the team in tackles with 60 tackles and led UW with 10 pass breakups. He also added one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Burns also was the team's primary punt returner, tallying 12 returns for 122 yards with a long of 47. 2011: Burns began his true freshman season as a backup cornerback, but earned a starting spot over the final nine games of the year. He was named a First Team Freshman All-American by CBSSports.com and the Football Writers Association of America and Honorable Mention Freshman All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com. He also earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors from the Mountain West. Burns led Wyoming in interceptions, with four, and ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 38 in the nation in interceptions. He had two interceptions versus Bowling Green, one at the goal line against TCU to stop a scoring drive and one at Colorado State to end the game. Burns concluded the regular season with 48 total tackles, 1.5 TFLs, one fumble recovery and four pass breakups. He tied for seventh in the MW in passes defended with eight. His best game came against Bowling Green -- two interceptions, one fumble recovery and six tackles. He had a season-high nine tackles at Utah State. Burns recorded seven tackles and had one pass breakup at San Diego State, and he broke up a season-high three passes versus UNLV. He was honored as the team's Freshman of the Year at the year-end awards banquet. High School: Burns was an Honorable Mention All-State and First Team All-District 5A selection as a cornerback at Plano High School. His senior year, he was credited with 56 tackles, intercepted six passes, had 16 pass breakups and returned one kickoff for a touchdown. He helped lead Plano to a 7-4 record and the first round of the state playoffs. His name was placed on the Plano Senior High Wall of Honor following his senior season for earning Collin County All-District honors in football. His junior season, Burns made 46 tackles, intercepted two passes and broke up 14 other passes. He earned Second Team All-District his junior season, as his team went 5-8 on the season. His sophomore year, he was part of a 10-2 team that advanced to the second round of the state playoffs. He played for head coach Jaydon McCullough at Plano Senior High. Personal: Born July 9, 1993, he is the son of Paulette and Arthur Burns and has one younger sister, Brandi. His dad played baseball at Mississippi Valley State. Burns was also recruited by Louisiana Monroe and Texas Tech. He is pursuing a degree in communications at UW.

(Tyler JC, Texas)

UW This Season: Claiborne will head into fall camp as the top Z receiver on the depth chart for the Pokes after a strong spring showing. He could handle all the punt return duties for special teams, as well. 2013: Claiborne finished fourth among UW players with 33 grabs for 452 yards and five scores. He averaged 13.7 yards per catch and had a 71-yard TD reception versus Hawai'i. Claiborne also served as the team's main kick returner, with 16 returns for 293 yards with a long of 33. He began the season with seven catches for 88 yards and two TDs versus Nebraska. 2012: Claiborne had a breakout season at the NCAA FBS level after transferring from Tyler Community College in Texas. A nine-game starter, he caught 34 passes (third on the team) for 490 yards, and made a great leaping catch in the endzone in overtime against Idaho to give Wyoming a victory. He returned two punts for 66 yards, with a long of 37. Junior College: Tyler Junior College advanced to the conference championship in Claiborne's lone season playing there, and he finished with 30 catches for 330 yards and six touchdowns. High School: Claiborne was a three-year letterwinner in football and basketball, and lettered two years in track. He was named to the All-State squad his junior and senior years and was the district newcomer of the year in his sophomore season. Carthage High School won the state title each season in which Claiborne was a contributor. He also was an honor roll student each season. Personal: Born Feb. 24, 1993, he is the son of Earl and Alice Claiborne. He is pursuing a degree in communications at UW.

Devyn HARRIS

Linebacker
6-3, 234, Senior
Fountain, Colo.
(Fountain-Fort Carson)

43

UW This Season: Harris was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA, and will play his senior season at linebacker. Coming out of spring drills, he was listed as the co-starter at the weakside linebacker spot.

2013: In 2013, his best game of season came versus Hawai'i with nine tackles, one sack, two TFLs and a pass breakup. He made the tackle on the fourth-down goal-line attempt on the Rainbow Warriors' first possession to seal the win. He played well versus Nebraska as well with seven tackles. He had 49 tackles, one sack for 8 yards and recovered two fumbles. 2012: Harris got off to a great start to his season, notching eight tackles in the season opener versus Texas. But an injury suffered against the Longhorns kept him out the rest of the season. 2011: Harris was sixth on the Cowboy defense in tackles, racking up 65 stops to go with three pass breakups. His 65 tackles tied him for 27th in the Mountain West, averaging five stops per game. He started seven games for the Pokes at middle linebacker. He played in all 13 games, but had his best performance of the season at Bowling Green, when he had 11 tackles and one pass breakup. He had at least four tackles in 10 games, and forced a fumble versus San Diego State. For the season, he had 1.5 tackles for loss. 2010: Splitting time with senior Keith Lewis at outside linebacker, Harris played in all 12 games and started eight of the last nine contests. Harris made 47 tackles on the season to rank ninth on the team, while also collecting three tackles for loss, one fumble recovery and four pass breakups. Harris made a season-high eight tackles versus Air Force and at TCU, while also recording seven stops at New Mexico. His efforts earned him a place on Phil Steele's All-Freshman team as a Fourth Team Freshman All-American. 2009: He redshirted after suffering a knee injury in fall camp. Prior to the injury, it was thought that Harris would have a good opportunity to play as a true freshman for the Cowboys.

High School: Harris was honored as an All-Colorado selection for all classifications by The Denver Post as a senior in 2008. Harris was also named First Team All-State Class 4A by both The Denver Post and the Rocky Mountain News. He was credited with 101 tackles as an outside linebacker and 804 rushing yards as a running back his senior season. As a team captain, he helped lead Fountain-Fort Carson to a 10-2 record and the quarterfinals of the 4A state playoffs as a senior. His junior year, Harris earned second team all-state honors, while recording 94 total tackles and intercepting four passes. During his three years at Fountain-Fort Carson, his high school team compiled a 30-6 (.833) record and advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs all three seasons. A three-sport standout, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and a four-year letterwinner in track and field. Harris also earned first team academic all-state honors. He played for head football coach Mitch Johnson at Fountain-Fort Carson. Personal: Born Nov. 10, 1990, Harris is the oldest of three children of Valarie and Keith Harris. He was also recruited by Air Force, Colorado State and New Mexico. Harris graduated from UW with a degree in anthropology in 2014.

UW This Season: Hayes will see the field extensively this fall, ending the 2014 spring drills as the backup at the boundary cornerback position on the final depth chart. 2013: Hayes started eight games and played in 11 as a true freshman cornerback. He responded with 36 tackles and six pass breakups, second among all Cowboys. He played a great game versus Hawai'i with seven tackles and his first career interception. High School: Hayes came to Wyoming from Crespi Carmelite High School in Encino, Calif. The Los Angeles native earned First Team All-Sierra League as a running back his senior season. He helped lead Crespi to an 8-2 record in 2012, while being named his team's Most Valuable Player. He had 32 carries for 485 yards and scored five touchdowns his senior season. On defense, he was credited with 45 tackles, intercepted four passes and had six pass breakups. He earned Time Warner Player of the Game honors versus Alemany, as he rushed 20 times for 168 yards and three touchdowns, while also intercepting a pass to lead Crespi to a 29-27 victory. Hayes' final TD run of the night was a 75-yarder. Hayes was also named the Defensive Player of the Week for his performance versus Taft. He played for head football coach Jon Mack. Personal: Born Dec. 13, 1994, Hayes is the youngest of three children of Antoinette and Timothy Hayes. He has two cousins who played college football and currently play in the NFL. Those two cousins are running back Reggie Bush, of USC and currently the Detroit Lions, and defensive end D'Aundre Reed, who played at the University of Arizona and was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings. Hayes was also recruited by California, New Mexico State, Oregon State and Utah. He is undecided on a major at UW.

He had seven stops and a forced fumble and recovery against Hawai'i, and posted a season-high eight tackles versus Fresno State. 2012: Jones had one of the Pokes' six interceptions of the season. Versus Cal Poly, Jones picked off a pass and returned it 14 yards, to go along with four tackles. He had six stops versus Fresno State. In 12 games, he had 21 tackles and one pass breakup. 2011: One of the most valuable special teamers at UW, Jones was lauded by the Wyoming coaching staff as a consistent player all season, and versus UNLV, he came up big. Jones' huge block on a punt return sprung teammate Chris McNeill to a 76-yard TD versus the Rebels. McNeill later won the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Week. Jones also played on the defensive side of the ball, seeing time at corner in several games. Jones played in all 13 games as a freshman and had 11 tackles. High School: Jones was a running back and defensive back at Harker Heights High School in Killeen, Texas. His senior season, he rushed for 389 yards on 95 carries and scored seven rushing touchdowns. He ranked No. 15 in rushing yards in District 12-5A for the 2010 season. Jones returned 10 kickoffs for 310 yards and one touchdown to rank No. 4 in kickoff returns in District 12-5A. His longest run from scrimmage was 59 yards, and his long kickoff return of the year went for 88 yards. He also added four receptions for 31 yards. His best individual rushing game of his senior season came against A&M Consolidated as he carried the ball 21 times for 168 yards and three touchdowns. In the season finale against Georgetown High, Jones also scored three touchdowns rushing as he accounted for 77 yards rushing on 26 carries. A multi-sport athlete at Harker Heights, he lettered in football three years, lacrosse one year and track and field once. He played for head football coach Mike Mullins. Personal: Born March 9, 1993, he is the son of Sonji Jones, and has one older sibling, Diarrio, and one younger, Isaiah. Jones was also recruited by Baylor, Colorado and UTEP. He is pursuing a degree in communications at UW.

Pronunciation: LANG

UW This Season: Lange hopes to contribute this fall, finishing the 2014 spring drills as the No. 2 left defensive end on the final depth chart. 2013: Lange moved to defensive end for his junior season but did not play in any games. 2012: With two starts at H-back over 12 games, Lange was a key component to the UW offensive attack. Serving as a lead blocker and protector, he helped the Pokes tally 1,502 yards on the ground in 2012. He was a very effective receiver as well, catching two passes for nine yards. Each grab was for a touchdown, as he scored versus Toledo and Fresno State. 2011: Lange had quite a journey in the offseason, as the coaching staff had planned to move him from defensive end to defensive tackle. That changed in the fall, when he moved to H-Back and began focusing on being a lead blocker. Lange played in all 13 games, starting three versus Texas State, Air Force and Temple in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl at H-back. Lange helped four Wyoming players reach more than 300 yards rushing in 2011, including Brett Smith (710), Alvester Alexander (695), Ghaali Muhammad (379) and Brandon Miller with 364. 2010: Redshirted. High School: Lange came to Wyoming as the No. 13-ranked recruit in the state of Colorado by Rivals.com. He also earned Honorable Mention All-State Class 5A honors from The Denver Post in 2009. As a senior at Ponderosa High School in Parker, Colo., Lange recorded 135 tackles, including 15 sacks and 20 tackles for losses. On offense, he was the starting fullback, scoring six touchdowns. A team captain in 2009, he helped lead Ponderosa to a 6-4 record and the first round of the Class 5A state playoffs. As a junior, he was credited with 137 tackles, nine sacks and 10 tackles for losses, while earning all-conference honors as a linebacker. Lange played for the South Squad in the 2010 Colorado High School Coaches' Association All-State Game at the University of Northern Colorado campus in Greeley. He played for head coach Randy Huff at Ponderosa High. Personal: Born Nov. 15, 1991, he is one of three children of Diane and Steve Lange. He was also recruited by Colorado, Colorado State, Kansas State, Oregon State and TCU. He is pursuing a degree in sociology at UW.

Sam STRATTON

Quarterback
5-11, 190, Senior
Littleton, Colo.
(Chatfield)

UW This Season: Stratton was part of a rotation of quarterbacks for the UW offense in the spring, and sits third on the depth chart leading up to fall camp.

2013: Stratton served as the primary holder for field-goal attempts and played some offense, taking snaps at quarterback. He had one rush for -12 yards. He was named to the Academic All-Conference team for his work in the classroom.

2012: Stratton missed the 2012 season as he recovered from an injury he suffered in winter conditioning that resulted in surgery. 2011: Stratton transitioned to a hybrid wide receiver/tailback position for the Cowboys and played in five games. He served as holder for PATs and field goals for those five games. He took snaps in Wyoming's version of the "Wildcat" offense, primarily against Boise State, when he carried the ball 14 times for 54 yards. He also had three receptions for 28 yards.

High School: Stratton came to the University of Wyoming from Chatfield High School in the Denver suburb of Littleton, Colo., where he was a four-year starter at quarterback. He earned Honorable Mention All-State Class 5A honors from The Denver Post as both a junior and senior. Stratton concluded his high school career as Chatfield's career leader in total offense with more than 5,000 yards of total offense, including more than 3,600 passing yards and nearly 2,000 rushing yards. He also accounted for 54 touchdowns in his career. Stratton's senior season was cut short in the sixth game of the regular season when he injured his right knee in a game versus Pomona. In the six games he played in '09, he had completed 58-of-89 passes (65.2 percent) for 650 yards and six passing touchdowns, while rushing for 550 yards and seven rushing TDs. An outstanding two-sport athlete in football and track and field, Stratton also holds the Chatfield school records in the 400 meters (48.4 seconds) and 200 meters (21.8 seconds). Stratton was named first team all-state in track as a junior. He anchored Chatfield's 4-by-200-meter relay team to a Class 5A state championship in the spring of 2009, and placed second individually in the 400-meter dash. Stratton qualified for and competed in the state track and field championships as a freshman, sophomore and junior. He played for head football coach Brett McGatlin. Personal: Born Oct. 1, 1991, he is the youngest of two sons of Sara and Mike Stratton. He was also recruited by Air Force, Arizona State, Colorado, Colorado State and Kansas State. He graduated from UW with a degree in communications in 2014.

He joined the Wyoming Football team in January 2014 with three years of eligibility remaining. Junior College: He played one year of junior college football at ASA College in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 2013. Young led ASA College to a No. 7 ranking in the final National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) men's football poll. The Avengers posted a 9-1 record in 2013, including winning their final nine games of the season. ASA's only loss came in the season opener to Georgia Military by a score of 22-15. Georgia Military ended the season ranked No. 3 in the final NJCAA National Poll. ASA captured its second-consecutive Northeast Football Conference Championship by defeating then-No. 16 Nassau Community College 37-7 on Nassau's home field. ASA concluded the season by winning the Carrier Dome Bowl over No. 20 College of DuPage, 23-3. It was the first bowl victory in the program's history. Young won the starting quarterback job as a freshman by beating out the previous-year starter for the ASA Avengers. Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Young started all 10 games for the Avengers in 2013. He completed 128-of-210 passes (61 percent) for 1,803 yards, threw 22 touchdowns and had only three passes intercepted. Two of his three interceptions came in the first three games of the season, tossing only one pick in the remaining seven games. He ranked No. 8 in the NJCAA in passing touchdowns and 17th in the nation in passing yards, averaging 180.3 yards per game. He set new school single-season records for passing yards (1,803 yards) and touchdown passes (22). Young guided an ASA offense that averaged 37.8 points per game, ranking 10th in the nation. The Avengers generated 414.2 yards of total offense per game to rank No. 17 in the country and averaged 209.1 yards passing per game as a team to rank 20th in the NJCAA. In terms of red-zone efficiency, Young's offense scored on 32-of-36 red-zone opportunities (88.9 percent), which placed them No. 6 in the national NJCAA rankings. Of those 32 scores, 31 were touchdowns. Young earned First Team All-Northeast Football Conference honors as a freshman. He played for head coach Dennis Orlando at ASA. Young's best individual games included a 212-yard passing effort versus Army's Junior Varsity squad in a 40-16 ASA road victory. He also threw three touchdown passes in that win. Against Dean College in a 55-17 road win, Young passed for 227 yards and threw five TD passes. He earned Northeast Football Conference Offensive Player of the Week honors for his efforts. The next week against Lackawanna College, Young's totals included 253 passing yards and three TD passes in 27-0 shutout victory. He enjoyed another 200-yard passing game against Louisburg College, throwing for 209 yards and three touchdowns in a 43-5 home win. In the conference championship game against No. 16 Nassau Community College, Young completed 82.4 percent of his passes (14-of-17) for 156 yards and two TD passes in ASA's 37-7 road victory. He concluded his freshman season completing 17-of-26 passes (65.4 percent) for 218 yards and three TDs as he lead ASA to a 23-3 win over No. 20 College of DuPage in the Carrier Dome Bowl. High School: Young played his high school football at Vista del Lago High School in Sacramento, Calif. GAME #1

No. 18 Nebraska 37, Wyoming 34

Aug. 31, 2013

Memorial Stadium
Lincoln, Neb.

Wyoming scored a touchdown to draw within three points with just 1:32 to go in the contest, but couldn't overcome a big second-half by Nebraska as UW fell 37-34.

In the season opener for both teams, junior quarterback Brett Smith threw for four scores and 383 yards, and gave Wyoming a chance with less than two minutes to get into field-goal range for the tie. But his pass with 11 seconds left fell incomplete, and 18th-ranked Nebraska escaped with a win in its home opener.

Senior safety Marqueston Huff stripped NU quarterback Taylor Martinez of the ball on a fourth-down attempt, and recovered the ball on the UW 38 with 2:01 remaining in the game. Huff finished with 18 tackles, a career high and 10th in UW single-game history. Junior wide receiver Dominic Rufran 11 catches for 120 yards, both career highs. Sophomore defensive end Eddie Yarbrough had 13 stops.

GAME #2

Wyoming 42, Idaho 10

Sept. 7, 2013

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

Quarterback Brett Smith lead Wyoming to a 42-10 victory over Idaho, aided by the UW defense holding the Vandals off the scoreboard until midway through the fourth quarter.

Wide receiver Dominic Rufran had five catches for 61 yards, but three of those went for touchdowns. Senior wide receiver Robert Herron posted 123 yards on five catches and freshman wide receiver Tanner Gentry had a game-high six catches for 76 yards. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick racked up 110 rushing yards on 15 carries.

Defensively, redshirt freshman linebacker Lucas Wachu earned 11 tackles, including half a sack. Sophomore defensive end Eddie Yarbrough tied a career high with three sacks and added nine tackles. The UW defense forced two turnovers and made the Vandals to punt nine times, including seven three-and-outs.

GAME #3

Wyoming 35, Northern Colorado 7

Sept. 14, 2013
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The University of Wyoming football team relied on its defense to spark the team, as the Cowboys held Northern Colorado to just one touchdown in a 35-7 win in War Memorial Stadium. UW returned two interceptions for touchdowns, while collecting five tackles for loss, two sacks and seven pass breakups in the win over UNC.

Wyoming got on the board with a 1-yard touchdown run from sophomore running back Shaun Wick and shortly after, junior linebacker Jordan Stanton picked off UNC's quarterback at the UNC 39-yard line and rumbled all the way back for the touchdown, as UW posted two touchdowns in less than two minutes. The Cowboys added another score in the second quarter and Wick extended the lead to 28-7 early in the fourth quarter, before redshirt freshman cornerback Cortland Fort returned another interception 50 yards for the touchdown to ice the game.

GAME #4

Wyoming 56, Air Force 23

Sept. 21, 2013
Falcon Stadium
Colorado Springs, Colo.

Thanks to five touchdowns from junior quarterback Brett Smith, the University of Wyoming football team rolled to a 56-23 victory over Air Force in Falcon Stadium.

Smith had scoring tosses of 7, 61, 4 and 10 yards, along with a 6-yard scamper, to give UW a 42-17 halftime lead. For the day, Smith finished with 511 total yards, a UW single-game record, besting the previous high of 482 (Josh Wallwork vs. Idaho, 1996). He also became the UW career leader in TD passes, as he now has 60 in three seasons.

Senior wide receiver Robert Herron had nine grabs for 94 yards and a score, while junior wide receiver Dominic Rufran had eight catches for 117 yards and two TDs. Herron and Rufran now rank eighth on the career TD catches list. The Cowboys were 10-for-14 on third downs and 1-for-1 on fourth down.

Defensively, UW was led by linebackers Lucas Wach and Jordan Stanton with 10 and nine tackles, respectively. Sophomore defensive end Eddie Yarbrough had eight tackles and one tackle for loss. The UW defense had five tackles for loss and limited Air Force to just 6-of-14 on third down.

GAME #5

Texas State 42, Wyoming 21

Sept. 28, 2013
Bobcat Stadium
San Marcos, Texas

Suffering just its second defeat of the year, the University of Wyoming football team dropped a 42-21 contest on the road to Texas State.

The Cowboys went into halftime tied 14-14 with the Bobcats (3-1), but couldn't overcome a 28-point second half from Texas State. The game was marred by a three-hour, 28-minute delay in the second quarter due to lightning, and after a 6:06 p.m. kickoff, the squads resumed the game at 10:30 p.m. CT.

Junior quarterback Brett Smith (25-for-48 for 292 yards) tossed an 11-yard score to senior wide receiver Robert Herron to cut the deficit to 35-21 with 11:12 to go in the game, but UW wouldn't come any closer. Herron finished with seven grabs for 94 yards and a score, and Miller led UW with 72 rush yards. Defensively, senior safety Marqueston Huff had 11 tackles, while sophomore Eddie Yarbrough added eight stops.

Defensively, UW was led by linebackers Lucas Wacha and Jordan Stanton with 10 and nine tackles, respectively. Sophomore defensive end Eddie Yarbrough had eight tackles and one tackle for loss. The UW defense had five tackles for loss and limited Air Force to just 6-of-14 on third down.

GAME #6

Wyoming 38, New Mexico 31

Oct. 12, 2013
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

In the 500th home game in team history, the rushing game proved to be the difference as the University of Wyoming football team beat New Mexico, 38-31.

On Homecoming, junior quarterback Brett Smith led the Cowboys with 138 rush yards and two scores on the ground as UW racked up a season-high 285 rushing yards. UW raced out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, only to see the Lobos creep back in with 24 unanswered to tie the ball game with 13:16 left.

When the Pokes needed an answer, they relied on to Smith, who had scoring runs of 3 and 48 yards in the fourth quarter. He finished with 247 yards and one score through the air and 138 yards and two TDs on the ground. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick had a career-high 116 yards rushing and two scores.

Junior linebacker Jordan Stanton had 14 tackles and senior safety Marqueston Huff with 10.

GAME #3

Colorado State 52, Wyoming 22

Oct. 19, 2013

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The University of Wyoming football team's quest to keep the Bronze Boot for five-straight years fell short as the Pokes were upended by Colorado State, 52-22, in the 105th edition of the Border War. Wyoming had held the coveted traveling trophy for the series from 2009-12, but fell behind by three touchdowns and couldn't overcome a CSU rushing game that racked up 290 yards and four scores.

The UW offense struggled to find a rhythm all day despite a career-high 135 receiving yards and one score from junior Dominic Rufran and 81 yards on the ground and one rush TD from senior running back Tedder Easton. Junior quarterback Brett Smith finished 21-for-36 for 256 yards with one TD and two interceptions.

Defensively, UW was led by junior linebacker Jordan Stanton, who had a career-high 18 stops, good for sixth in school single-game history. Redshirt freshman Lucas Wacha had a career-high 13 tackles.

GAME #8

San José State 51, Wyoming 44

Oct. 26, 2013

Spartan Stadium
San José, Calif.

A career rushing day from sophomore running back Shaun Wick wasn't enough for the University of Wyoming football team to overcome a powerful San José State offense, as UW fell 51-44. Wyoming tied things up at 44-all with 5:17 to go, but San José State used a lengthy drive and scored on a 1-yard TD plunge with just eight seconds to go for the win.

The defeat overshadowed a stellar performance from Wick, who had a career-high 234 yards and one touchdown on 17 carries. Another highlight for the Pokes came halfway through the first quarter, when junior quarterback Brett Smith (22-for-34, 267 yards and three TDs) found senior wide receiver Robert Herron on a quick out from the UW 7. Herron made one defender miss and raced 93 yards for a score that gave Wyoming a 10-0 lead. The pass play was the longest in school history, surpassing the previous high of 91 yards.

The UW offense tallied 599 total yards, including 332 on the ground, but the Wyoming defense surrendered 642 yards, including 65 on 12 plays on the final drive. A 22-point third quarter pushed San Jose State to the 36-30 lead heading into the final frame, but senior running back Tedder Easton tied things up with a 1-yard TD rush with 5:17 to go in the game.

Defensively, Wyoming got 17 tackles from junior linebacker Jordan Stanton and 14 from junior linebacker Mark Nzeocha.

GAME #9

Fresno State 48, Wyoming 10

Nov. 9, 2013

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The University of Wyoming football team held a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter against No. 16 Fresno State, but the Bulldogs reeled off 48 unanswered points en route to a 48-10 win in War Memorial Stadium.

Wyoming scored on its second possession of the game thanks to a 79-yard rumble from senior running back Tedder Easton. The rush was UW's longest this season and took the Pokes to FSU's 1-yard line, as junior quarterback Brett Smith hit sophomore running back Shawn Wick with a quick pass on the next play for a touchdown.

The Cowboy defense forced punts on FSU's first two drives and the UW special teams came up with a blocked field goal on the third. The Bulldogs set up for a 35-yard attempt, but senior free safety Marqueston Huff blocked the kick off the edge and junior cornerback DeAndre Jones returned the ball to the UW 37.

GAME #10

Boise State 48, Wyoming 7

Nov. 16, 2013

Bronco Stadium
Boise, Idaho

An early touchdown strike from quarterback Brett Smith to wide receiver Robert Herron wasn't enough for the University of Wyoming football team, as the Pokes dropped a road contest to the Boise State Broncos, 48-7.

Despite leading 7-0 early in the first quarter, the Pokes gave up 48-unanswered points to Boise State to lose for the fourth-straight week.

UW sophomore defensive end Eddie Yarbrough began the game with a strip sack of Boise State, which senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens recovered on the BSU 47. Six plays later, Smith found Herron for a score from 19 yards out and UW led 7-0. But the Broncos scored on their next four possessions to lead 28-7 at the half, and tacked on 20 more points in the second half.

Smith finished with 201 combined yards passing and rushing, just seven yards shy of becoming UW's career total offense leader.

GAME #11

Wyoming 59, Hawai'i 56

Nov. 23, 2013

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The offenses certainly stole the show in regulation, but it was the defense and special teams that stood out in overtime Saturday as the University of Wyoming football team outlasted Hawai'i in a chilly and high-scoring game in Laramie, 59-56.

The Cowboys kept the Paniolo Trophy after junior place-kicker Stuart Williams nailed a 36-yard field goal in the first overtime to beat the Rainbow Warriors. But the game-winning score was made possible by senior linebacker Devyn Harris, who stopped Hawai'i on its fourth-down attempt from the Wyoming 4 to begin the OT period.

Hawai'i started overtime with the ball and drove to Wyoming's 4, but Harris tackled the ball carrier for a 1-yard loss to give UW possession. The Cowboy offense ran three plays before Williams lined up for the game winner.

With a game-time temperature at 25 degrees, the offenses warmed things up by scoring early and often. The squads combined for 1,417 yards of offense (Wyoming with 793) and 115 total points. Junior quarterback Brett Smith set the school- and Mountain West record with 640 yards of offense and eight total TDs, including 498 through the air and 142 on the ground.

GAME #12

Utah State 35, Wyoming 7

Nov. 30, 2013

Romney Stadium
Logan, Utah

The 2013 season came to a close for the University of Wyoming football team as the Cowboys dropped the last game of the year, 35-7, to the Utah State Aggies.

Wyoming scored just one touchdown, while Utah State used four offensive touchdowns and a 64-yard punt return TD to secure a spot in the MW Championship game.

Quarterback Brett Smith went 16-for-29 for 162 yards and tossed a 60-yard TD strike to junior wide receiver Dominic Rufran in the fourth quarter. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick had 40 yards on the ground, while junior wide receiver Jalen Claiborne led the Pokes with five catches for 41 yards.

Defensively, Marqueston Huff and Devyn Harris set career highs with 20 (No. 3 in UW single-game history) and 12 tackles, respectively.

RECORDS & HISTORY

(The NCAA only recognizes regular-season totals, which are reflected here. School records throughout the rest of this section include bowl-game statistics.)

MARCUS HARRIS (#23) became the greatest receiver in NCAA history during his career from 1993-96. Harris set NCAA records for most yards receiving (4,518) and most 100-yard receiving games (24). He also became the only receiver in NCAA history to amass 1,400 yards receiving in three different seasons. For his performance, Harris was named the recipient of the 1996 Biletnikoff Award, signifying the top receiver in the country. Harris currently ranks No. 3 in NCAA history in career receiving yards.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

LARRY BIRLEFFI,
flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 16th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

2013-14 in Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed an outstanding year in 2013-14. In football, the inaugural MW Football Championship game took place on December 7, 2013, at Bulldog Stadium in Fresno, California. West Division champion Fresno State and Mountain Division champion Utah State squared off in this historic contest, with the Bulldogs coming out on top 24-17 for their second straight Mountain West crown. The MW sent a league-record six teams to bowl games, with Boise State, Colorado State, San Diego State and UNLV joining the Bulldogs and Aggies, marking the seventh consecutive year that at least five teams represented the league in postseason play.

Mountain West regular-season champion San Diego State advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA men's basketball tournament for the second time in four years after receiving an at-large berth. MW tournament champion New Mexico earned the league's automatic bid and joined the Aztecs in the NCAA tournament, marking the 14th time in 15 years the Conference has sent multiple teams to the Big Dance. Fresno State and Wyoming also took part in postseason action, playing in the College Basketball Invitational, with the Bulldogs advancing to the championship finals.

In women's basketball, Fresno State made its seventh consecutive NCAA tournament appearance after capturing the MW tournament crown to earn the Conference's automatic bid. Mountain West regular-season champion Colorado State advanced to the Women's National Invitation Tournament, while Boise State received a berth in the Women's Basketball Invitational.

Colorado State made its 19th consecutive appearance at the NCAA volleyball tournament, earning the league's automatic bid after capturing the MW regular-season crown.

In women's soccer, San Diego State advanced to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year after clinching both the MW regular-season and tournament crowns to earn the league's automatic bid.

The New Mexico men's and women's cross country teams swept the MW crowns for the fifth consecutive year and went on to earn spots in the NCAA Championships, where they were joined by the men's teams from Air Force and Colorado State. The Lobo women registered their fourth straight top-10 performance with a 10th-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

San Diego State's Shanieka Thomas captured the Triple Jump title at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships to lead six MW student-athletes in receiving All-America accolades, including four who recorded top-eight performances. In addition to Thomas' winning effort, Boise State's Emma Bates finished fourth in both the 3,000 and 5,000 Meters. On the men's side, Wyoming's Mason Finley placed fourth in the Shot Put, while Air Force's Joey Uhle finished seventh in the Pole Vault.

Seven institutions represented the Mountain West at the 2014 NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving Championships, with student-athletes from Air Force, Boise State, Fresno State, Nevada, San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming comprising the MW contingent.

For the 15th consecutive season, the Mountain West sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals. New Mexico earned the league's automatic bid and was joined by San Diego State and UNLV with at-large invitations. In addition, Air Force's Kyle Westmoreland and San José State's Cody Blick both made their second straight postseason appearances as individual at the NCAA Regionals. On the women's side, three MW teams advanced to the NCAA Women's Golf Regionals for the 12th time in league history. New Mexico earned the Mountain West's automatic berth and was joined by San Diego State and UNLV, who earned at-large invitations. Two individuals, Fresno State's Madchen Ly and San José State's Regan de Guzman also represented the Mountain West at the NCAA Regionals. UNLV's Dana Finkelstein advanced to the NCAA Championship after finishing tied for second at the Central Regional, marking the best regional finish by a Mountain West golfer since UNLV's Therese Koelbaek won the West Regional in 2008.

The Boise State men's and Fresno State women's teams earned the league's automatic bids and represented the MW at the 2014 NCAA Tennis Championships. In addition, the league qualified two individuals and one doubles team for postseason competition.

In softball, MW champion San Diego State earned the league's automatic bid for the third straight year and made its seventh consecutive appearance in the NCAA Championship.

At the 2014 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, Boise State's Emma Bates ran the second-fastest time in NCAA history en route to capturing the 10,000 Meters, while San Diego State's Shanieka Thomas became the sixth woman in meet history to claim consecutive outdoor Triple Jump crowns. With her 2014 indoor title, Thomas is also the first woman to sweep the Triple Jump event since Florida State's Kimberly Williams in 2009. Bates and Thomas led 17 Mountain West student-athletes in earning All-America honors, including six who joined them in finishing among the top eight in their respective events. Bates also placed fourth in the 5,000 Meters, while Boise State's Marisa Howard and San Diego State's Allison Reaser each turned in runner-up performances in the 3,000 Steeplechase and Heptathlon, respectively. Colorado State's Kiah Hicks posted a seventh-place finish in the Discus. For the men, New Mexico's Peter Callahan raced to a fourth-place finish in the 1,500 Meters, while Wyoming's Mason Finley registered a sixth-place effort in the Discus. Colorado State's Trevor Brown rounded out the group with an eighth-place result in the 400 Hurdles.

Mountain West Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the Conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 16th season of competition in 2014-15, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $300 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape over the past few years, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012, and San José State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member on July 1, 2012.

His leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network, Comcast and ESPN, including becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the current Bowl Championship Series (BCS) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the collegiate postseason football system fair for all universities.

Through its first 15 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 62 bowl games, amassing a 35-27 (.565) all-time record in those contests. Over the last 10 seasons, the MW has captured the Bowl Challenge Cup four times and owns the second-best win percentage in bowl games among the 10 FBS conferences with a 28-19 mark (.595). The MW claimed the 2010, 2009 and 2007 Challenge Cups after finishing each of the three postseasons with 4-1 (.800) records. The league earned its first Cup after registering a 2-1 mark in bowl competition during the 2004 season. The Mountain West is the only conference to win the Bowl Challenge Cup four times since the award's inception in 2002.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

During his eight years at the Sun Belt, he spent the majority of his time addressing national trends and challenges in intercollegiate athletics, television exposure, issues relating to conference membership and promoting corporate involvement. In 1997-98, the Sun Belt instituted a comprehensive sportsmanship policy, which earned Thompson designation as a 1998 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport. Under Thompson's leadership, the Sun Belt was active in expansion as it continued to strengthen its posture nationally, adding Florida International University and the University of Denver.

Thompson is an integral part of the national landscape in intercollegiate athletics, holding many prestigious NCAA posts. He is currently on the NCAA Football Board of Directors and a member of the BCS administration. Thompson also is a member of the College Football Officiating Board of Managers, LLC, and a consultant for the Task Force on Commercial Activity in Intercollegiate Athletics. He also has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (1995-2000) and was appointed Chair of the committee in July 1999, completing his term September 1, 2000.

Over the tenure of his career, Thompson has been a member of the Executive Committee and the Director's Cup Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), as well as the governing NCAA Council and various Council subcommittees. He has also played a prominent role in hosting numerous men's and women's NCAA postseason basketball tournaments in St. Louis, Atlanta, New Orleans and Denver.

Prior to his merger with the Sun Belt, Thompson served as the first and only commissioner of the American South Conference, which boasted an NCAA national champion in women's basketball during its first year. The American South also gained immediate national cable television exposure on ESPN and sent numerous teams into NCAA postseason play during the conference's four-year history.

Preceding his move to commissioner, Thompson served four years as the Director of Communications for the Metro Conference in Atlanta. While at the Metro, he directed the communications operations and administered conference championship events. Thompson originated the Metro Conference Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association, began a weekly radio program with over 300 affiliate stations, and originated a weekly satellite video program involving all Metro institutions. He also took on administrative duties such as coordination of officials, scheduling of tournament and regular-season play, and handling of legislative rules interpretations.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, earning numerous CoSIDA publication awards. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kings.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

UW ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

PRESIDENT RICHARD MCGINITY

Education

D.B.A., Harvard Business School

M.B.A., Harvard Business School

B.A., Princeton University

The University of Wyoming Board of Trustees on Jan. 16 appointed Dick McGinity as the university's 25th president.

UW Trustees appointed Dick McGinity as the University of Wyoming's interim president on December 6, 2013. Prior to this appointment, Dr. McGinity fulfilled the duties of the president following the resignation of former UW President Bob Sternberg on November 14. He did this in his capacity as Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs and pursuant to University Regulation 1-1. The Board made this appointment with the support of the university's Faculty Senate and the deans of the academic colleges.

Dr. McGinity and his administrative team are working with Wyoming Governor Matt Mead and lawmakers to prepare for the Legislature's 2014 budget session. The governor has recommended funding for a number of the university's top priorities, including a pay raise to retain and recruit top UW employees; programmatic and capital facilities improvements for the College of Engineering and Applied Science; enhancement of information technology and classrooms for students; and partnerships with Wyoming community colleges. Dr. McGinity is also leading the development of the university's strategic plan for 2015-2020, a process that involves all UW units and aims to establish priorities and lay out concrete steps to reach new levels of excellence in specific areas of teaching, research and service.

Dr. McGinity was appointed Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs in September 2013, and in this role he was responsible for the academic operations and employees of the University. Dr. McGinity joined the UW faculty in 2007 as the Bill Daniels Chair of Business Ethics.

In addition to serving as a UW faculty member in the College of Business, his public service includes over seven years as a director of the Wyoming Business Council, including Co-Chair in 2004-2005; three years as member of the finance committee of the Town of Wellesley, Massachusetts; and five years as a naval aviator during which he served in Viet Nam, earning two air medals.

Dr. McGinity served on the research faculty of Harvard Business School where he wrote numerous case studies, co-authored (with Ray A. Goldberg) a book about economic development and agribusiness, and wrote his doctoral dissertation on competition in the meat packing industry from 1945 to 1960.

Richard McGinity

After earning his undergraduate degree from Princeton and graduate degrees (MBA, DBA) from Harvard, Dr. McGinity pursued a career in venture capital and private equity: first as a partner in a Boston-based venture capital fund and then as founder of a boutique investment banking firm which served owners of private firms seeking to build enterprise value through growth, acquisitions, and equity transactions.

Dr. McGinity has served on the boards of numerous privately-owned and publicly traded companies, most recently Canada Southern Petroleum Ltd., where as Chairman he led that company's successful defense against a hostile takeover attempt by Petro-Canada.

Dr. McGinity maintains a residence in Crowheart, Wyoming. He loves being in the wilderness on horseback and is a licensed professional guide.

TOM BURMAN

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

From the time Tom Burman was named Athletics Director at the University of Wyoming on Oct. 9, 2006, to today, Wyoming Athletics has enjoyed some of its most memorable moments in school history. Also during Burman's past seven-plus years as athletics director, he has hired some of the most accomplished head coaches in University of Wyoming history and fundraising efforts during Burman's time as A.D. have been unmatched.

The memorable moments include: the Wyoming Cowgirl Basketball Team capturing the WNIT National Championship in 2007; the Wyoming Football Team's dramatic, double-overtime victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl and appearance in the 2011 New Mexico Bowl; Wyoming men's basketball team defeating No. 5 ranked San Diego State in 2014; and the Cowboy wrestling team's success in multiple NCAA Tournaments during Burman's tenure.

Among the nationally-successful head coaches that Burman has hired is his most recent hire of head football coach Craig Bohl in December of 2013. Bohl led North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS national championships in 2011, '12 and '13, was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 and was part of two FBS national championships as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, in 1995 and '97.

The other nationally-successful coaches that Burman has hired includes head men's basketball coach Larry Shyatt, who was part of two national championships in 2006 and '07 as associate head coach at Florida. Burman hired head wrestling coach Mark Branch, who was part of four NCAA Championships as associate head coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, and won two individual NCAA titles as a competitor at OSU in 1994 and '97. Current track and field coach Bryan Berryhill is a fourth UW head coach who has achieved a national title and was hired by Burman. Berryhill captured individual NCAA national championships in the indoor 1-mile run and outdoor 1,500-meter run in 2001 at Colorado State.

Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels in Burman's seven-plus years directing the UW Athletics department. Numerous facility projects have also been completed under Burman's direction.

Academically, Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes are achieving at exceptional levels.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Specific accomplishments that have been achieved during Burman's tenure as Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming include:

Student Services

- Resources dedicated toward academic success and student-athlete welfare since 2006 have increased nearly 100 percent, including the adoption of a new program that puts an iPad for academic support in the hands of every scholarship student-athlete.
- Under Burman, three additional positions have been added within the Office of Academic Support including the creation of an Eligibility Coordinator for Athletics.
- University of Wyoming student-athletes continue to set records in the Academic Progress Rate (APR) with Burman at the helm. At the conclusion of the 2013-2014 academic year, four sport programs (including football and men's basketball) saw all-time high APR scores.
- During the 2013-14 academic year, a total of 108 UW student-athletes earned Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors. In addition, 48 student-athletes earned Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athlete honors.
- At the conclusion of the 2012-2013 season, the University of Wyoming swept the Mountain West Conference Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards as Luke Ruff of Cowboy Football and Chaundra Sewell of Cowgirl Basketball were named the recipients. It marked only the second time in the history of the Mountain West Conference that both Female and Male Scholar-Athlete Awards went to individuals from the same university.
- At the conclusion of the 2013-2014 academic year 12 out of UW's 17 athletic teams earned a cumulative team grade-point-average of 3.00 or higher.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Cowboy Joe Club revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to $4.5 million as of the end of the 2013 fiscal year.
- Ticket revenue has dramatically grown, including a 63 percent growth in football season ticket revenue since 2007.
- In the summer of 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history.
- The overall UW Athletics Department budget has grown from $21 million to over $29 million for the 2014-15 budget year.
- Burman has spearheaded over $50 million in facilities projects in five years, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility; construction of the Wildcat Stadium Club & Suites addition to War Memorial Stadium; extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; and completion of a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility that opened in the spring of 2011.
- In 2012-13, Wyoming Athletics began the third phase of its Athletics Facility Master Plan. As a part of that third phase, fundraising and construction began for a $30 million Arena-Auditorium renovation project. The first phase of the AA renovation will be completed in the fall of 2014. Also in 2014, a new $1.2 million golf practice facility was completed, and also included in the third phase is the goal of building a new natatorium for the men's and women's swimming programs. Planning for the natatorium began in the 2013-14 academic year.
- The Wildcat Stadium Club & Suites opened for the start of the 2010 football season, and features 12 luxury suites and 256 club seats.
- In the spring of 2010, UW Athletics completed a $38 million athletics facility campaign under Burman's direction as athletics director.

- Renovations and expansions to facilities such as War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium have focused on: both modernizing areas of facilities that benefit fans, specifically new and improved concession areas, restrooms and seating; and providing the best in training and competition facilities to benefit UW student-athletes.

Competitive Excellence

- In the spring of 2011, Burman lured Larry Shyatt away from his position as associate head coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of Cowboy Basketball. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators and had previously served as Wyoming's head coach in the 1997-98 season. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings. In Shyatt's first season back at the helm of Cowboy Basketball, the Pokes posted their first 20-win season (21-12) since the 2002-03 season and earned a postseason bid to the College Basketball Invitational. The Cowboys reached the Top 25 of the USA Today Coaches' Poll during the 2012-13 season and defeated No. 5 ranked San Diego State in the 2013-14 season.
- Burman hired Mark Branch as Wyoming's new wrestling coach prior to the 2008-09 season. The former two-time national champion at Oklahoma State University, Branch led Cowboy Wrestling to a 19th-place finish at the 2012 NCAA Championships. That was the best finish for the Cowboys since 1996. He has been named the Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year three times at Wyoming.
- The 2011-12 season was a very successful one for UW Athletics. The Cowgirl Soccer team earned its first-ever appearance in the Mountain West Tournament Championship match.
- The swimming and diving programs had another successful season, with head coach Tom Johnson winning his fourth conference Coach of the Year award in 2012.
- Cowgirl Tennis achieved its highest national ranking in the history of the program in 2012, reaching a high ranking of No. 56 out of over 300 women's tennis programs in the nation.
- Cowgirl Basketball achieved unprecedented success under the direction of head coach Joe Legerski. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game in Laramie. In 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In both the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, Wyoming again received bids to the WNIT where it advanced to the third round both seasons. The 2012-13 Cowgirl squad also earned a bid to the WNIT's first round.

Scheduling

- Burman scheduled the most-anticipated event in the history of War Memorial Stadium when the No. 9 ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers came to Laramie on Sept. 24, 2011, for the first time. It marked only the second time that a Big Ten football team had appeared in Laramie.
- Burman also negotiated the 2009 appearance of the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in War Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns made their first-ever appearance in Wyoming and went on to play for the 2009 National Championship, finishing as the national runner-up.
- In addition to Texas (2009) and Nebraska (2011), Burman has also negotiated future football contracts to bring the following teams to War Memorial Stadium: Oregon (2017), Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2022).

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center. He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from September 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being tabbed by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history.

He began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. Before entering a career in college athletics, Burman worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilber & Associates in McLean, Va., from 1990-92.

Burman earned a bachelor of science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Coraopolis, Pa., in 1991.

Burman is 48 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966. He and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Drew and Nathan.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT & GUIDING PRINCIPLES

MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the development of tomorrow's leaders by creating an environment that promotes personal growth, academic and athletic excellence in a progressive, inclusive, and transparent manner. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will support the overall University of Wyoming mission, provide an outstanding fan experience, encourage community engagement, and serve as a source of pride for alumni, supporters, and the state of Wyoming.

CORE VALUES

Dedication to Student-Athletes

We will promote the well-being of student-athletes and provide opportunities for academic, athletic, and personal success. We will foster academic excellence, graduate student-athletes, support their development as citizens, and prepare them to be leaders.

Integrity

We will demonstrate integrity in all areas. We are dedicated to financial stability, rules compliance, diversity, and personal accountability.

Respect

We will celebrate a climate of mutual respect, inclusiveness, loyalty, and sportsmanship by recognizing contributions to our teams, our department, and the university.

Competitive Success

We will endeavor to be the very best when representing the University of Wyoming and our state. We are committed to providing the resources and personnel for our teams to achieve success.

Tradition

The legacy of the University of Wyoming athletics is proud and strong. We will honor our outstanding tradition.

Excellence

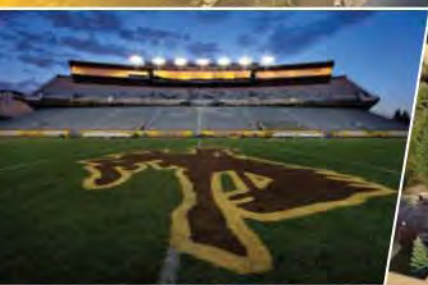

We believe in a spirit of comprehensive excellence. We will strive for excellence in all we do.

WYOMING FOOTBALL FACILITIES AMONG THE BEST IN THE WEST

Wyoming's Outstanding Football Facilities

War Memorial Stadium played host to a sellout crowd for the first-ever appearance by Nebraska in 2011.

Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites (Fall 2010)

The Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites opened in 2010, with 12 suites and 256 club seats.

New FieldTurf Surface Installed at Jonah Field (Summer 2013)

The most recent addition to Wyoming's football facilities was the installation of a new FieldTurf playing surface on Jonah Field in the summer of 2013.

Rochelle Athletics Center (Summer 2001)

The $9.4 Million Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center opened in the summer of 2001. The RAC includes a weight room, academic center, sports-medicine center, football coaches' offices and the Cowboy Football locker room.

Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007)

Wyoming's $11 Million Indoor Practice Facility opened in the fall of 2007, and contains over 80,000 square feet.
